Love White Black

Mark Mathabane

Love White Black:

Love in Black and White Mark Mathabane,1993 The dramatic revealing and riveting story of how Mark and Gail Mathabane overcame their own prejudices society s disapproval family opposition and personal self doubts to be together in an interracial relationship 16 pages of photos Love Notes Jan Stephenson,Amy Appleyard,2007 When you want to say how much you love someone nothing compares to a beautifully crafted handwritten note It s still the most heartfelt way to express timeless affection and true romance With this exquisite papercrafting book as inspiration artists and crafters can create the perfect card for family friends and significant others There s a chapter with ideas for composing the greeting and finding quotations as well as a gallery section with even more card ideas Step by step and full color photographs make even the more complicated designs simple to accomplish Boundaries of Love Chinyere K. Osuji,2019-05-21 How interracial couples in Brazil and the US navigate racial boundaries How do people understand and navigate being married to a person of a different race Based on individual interviews with forty seven black white couples in two large multicultural cities Los Angeles and Rio de Janeiro Boundaries of Love explores how partners in these relationships ultimately reproduce negotiate and challenge the us versus them mentality of ethno racial boundaries By centering marriage Chinyere Osuji reveals the family as a primary site for understanding the social construction of race She challenges the naive but widespread belief that interracial couples and their children provide an antidote to racism in the twenty first century instead highlighting the complexities and contradictions of these relationships Featuring black husbands with white wives as well as black wives with white husbands Boundaries of Love sheds light on the role of gender in navigating life married to a person of a different color Osuji compares black white couples in Brazil and the United States the two most populous post slavery societies in the Western hemisphere These settings she argues reveal the impact of contemporary race mixture on racial hierarchies and racial ideologies both old and new

The Colors of Love Melinda A. Mills,2021-12-07 This book explores the experiences of multiracial people in intimate romantic relationships The author considers how preferred racial identity shapes partner choice and the experiences of being racially mixed in romantic relationships The book also examines patterns in multiracial people s romantic careers to assess how much they are blending and blurring racial borders or reinforcing them It illustrates the extent to which members of the two or more races population participates in and upholds the current racial hierarchy

The Violence of Love Kit W. Myers, 2025-01-28 A free ebook version of this title is available through Luminos University of California Press's Open Access publishing program. Visit www.luminosoa.org to learn more. The Violence of Love challenges the narrative that adoption is a solely loving act that benefits birth parents, adopted individuals, and adoptive parents. A narrative that is especially pervasive with transracial and transnational adoptions. Using interdisciplinary methods of archival legal and discursive analysis, Kit W. Myers comparatively examines the adoption of Asian, Black, and Native American children by White families in the United States. He shows how race has been constructed relationally to mark certain homes, families, and nations as spaces of love, freedom, and better futures in contrast to others that are not and argues that violence is attached to adoption in complex ways. Propelled by different types of love, such adoptions attempt to transgress biological, racial, cultural, and national borders established by traditional family ideals. Yet they are also linked to structural, symbolic, and traumatic forms of violence. The Violence of Love confronts this discomforting reality and rethinks theories of family to offer more capacious understandings of love, kinship, and care.
