Loves Double Image:

Double Image David R. Morrell, 2001-05-01 After a harrowing experience in Bosnia war photographer Mitch Coltrane makes a vow From now on he will only take those pictures that celebrate life that document hope instead of despair Still wartorn images continue to haunt him He learns to shield himself by fixating on a beautiful woman in an old photograph But slowly he grows obsessed Who is she He must know And as Coltrane searches for answers he falls hopelessly in love forgetting that the past can sometimes intrude on the present with terrifying consequences The Unconscious Antony Easthope, 1999 This book shows the existence of the unconscious in a stunning variety of examples from jokes and rugby songs to Hitchcock's Psycho and the life and death of Princess Diana The Power of Love Phil Young, Morag Campbell, 2004 This unique guide to the huna mua teachings the earliest known form of Hawaiian huna is an indepth exploration of the nature of the soul body and mind and what it means to be human It is a book about the active transformative power of love which is the fundamental nature of soul consciousness and how it can change your life The teachings in this guide offer a unique perspective on spiritual development this being no less than the development of an immortal spirit body Filled with practical exercises to enhance the health and vitality of the physical body improve sexual experience balance the mind and expand soul consciousness it contains insights to help transform your life and relationships and gives guidance on the nature of soul mates and twin souls It also challenges many of the current conceptions around immortality and reincarnation Phil Young and Morag Campbell are initiates of the Order of Ku They travel and share the huna mua teachings worldwide They also practice and teach the powerful healing arts of ancient Kauai The Stelliferous Fold Rodolphe Gasché, 2011 This book seeks to develop a novel approach to literature beyond the conventional divide between realism formalism and history aestheticism It accomplishes this not only through a radical reassessment of the specificity of literature in distinction from one of its others namely philosophy but above all by taking critical issue with the venerable concept of the text and its association with the artisanal techniques of weaving and interlacing This conception of the text as an artisanal fabric is the author holds the unreflected presupposition of both realist or historicist and reflective or deconstructive criticism Gasché argues that the scenes of production within literary works created by their authors yet independent of those authors intentions stage a work's own production in virtual fashion and thus accomplish for those works a certain ideal ontological status that allows for both historical endurance and creative interpretation In Gasché's construction of these scenes in which literary works render visible within their own fabric the invisible conditions of their autonomous existence certain images prevail the fold the star the veil By showing that these literary images are not simply the opposites of concepts he not only puts into question the common opposition between literature and philosophy but shows that literary works perform a way of argumentation that in spite of all its difference from philosophical conceptuality is on a par with it The argument progresses through close readings of literary works by Lautréamont Nerval de l'Isle Adam Huysman Flaubert
