Lucys Wish:

Lucy's Wish Joan Lowery Nixon, 2013-11-27 Ten year old Lucy Griggs's mother has just died leaving Lucy orphaned and living on the streets of 1866 New York City. Then Lucy hears about the Children's Aid Society a group that sends orphans out West to new homes. Lucy knows she'll never replace her mum but maybe now she'll find a family and even a little sister to love. But the family that takes her in is far from ideal. Mr Snapes seems kind but Mrs Snapes is a bitter angry woman. And Emma isn't the sister Lucy has dreamed of. Emma is a girl who people call simple. Can Lucy learn to love this less than perfect family?

Lucy's Wish Mona Hanna, 2014 Lucy Bluebell is a quiet young witch working in a magic shop in her busy town trying to keep it running after her parents retired. She keeps to herself avoiding most people after an unkind warlock broke her heart. She has a wish however to meet a kind caring man who'll always love and cherish her. Someone she can love with her whole heart. Someone safe who she can rely on. Warren Lewiston is embroiled in a dark plan and needs Lucy's help even though he knows he's putting her in danger. His goal is to save his friend Sarah. His enemy Saxton will release her only if the plan goes off without a hitch. Warren has to work with Saxton doing what he asks or Sarah will never be free. But then things get messy. Lucy and Warren become hunted. Saxton becomes more threatening. Warren realizes he may lose his friend while endangering a woman he's falling for. Lucy thinks she's falling in love with a man who loves another. No one knows who will survive. In the end Lucy doesn't know if she'll ever get her wish. This is a NOVELLA of approximately 35 000 words.

This book looks at how the classic television series fits into the cultural milieu of mid century America. I Love Lucy incorporates key themes of the 1950s American political scene and classic American values of family, social mobility, community, individualism and work. Keeping in mind that Luck as Machiavelli said is the arbiter of half of what we do. As the beloved American TV queen Lucy Ricardo is a psychologically complicated character conflicted between her role as a 1950s housewife and her wish to be a star. She is an icon of social mobility going from a small New York City apartment to a country house in a swanky suburb and an example of the transitional woman who wants to have it all. Is she a feminist? Is she a conformist? Does she prefer the country to the city? Whether she is working on the chocolate factory assembly line, baking bread or achieving the American dream, Lucy is always speeding it up.
