Love The French:

Love, Desire and Transcendence in French Literature Paul Gifford, 2016-12-05 European literature and theory of the twentieth century have been intensely preoccupied with questions of Desire whereas love has increasingly represented a fractured and strange if not actually suspect proposal this is a prime symptom of an age of deep cultural mutation and uncertainty Paul Gifford's book allows this considerable contemporary phenomenon to be observed steadily and whole with strategic understanding of its origins nature and meaning Gifford paints a clear and coherent picture of the evolution of erotic ideas and their imaginary and formal expressions in modern French writing He first retraces the formative matrix of French tradition by engaging with five classic sources Plato's Symposium the Song of Songs the myth of Genesis the tension between Greek Eros and Christian Agape and the repercussions of Nietzsche's declaration of the death of God Modern variations on these perennial problematics are then pursued in ten chapters devoted to Proust Valéry Claudel Breton Bataille Duras Barthes Irigaray Emmanuel Kristeva Literary and theoretical perspectives are perfectly blended in his study of these attempts at deciphering Eros The book will appeal not only to students of French literature but to all those interested in the cultural upheavals of the twentieth century The Eagles' Nest; Or Maternal Love. Translated from the French "Scènes de Voyage." Adam VULLIET, 1873

Romantic Love and Personal Beauty Henry T. Finck, 2022-09-15 In Romantic Love and Personal Beauty Henry T. Finck explores the intricate interplay between ideals of beauty and the nature of romantic love presenting a compelling examination rooted in the aesthetic movements of the late 19th century Finck employs a lyrical prose style blending philosophical discourse with personal anecdotes and cultural critiques He situates love within the broader context of beauty as an essential human experience navigating through historical and contemporary perspectives that reveal how societal norms shape personal relationships and self-perception Henry T. Finck was a noted American author and lecturer with a profound interest in aesthetics and cultural criticism His extensive travels and deep engagement with European art and literature influenced his perspectives on beauty and love leading him to contemplate their intimate connection Finck's work reflects a transitional period where the Romantic ideals of the 19th century faced the emerging realism of the 20th showcasing his unique ability to synthesize these influences into a coherent narrative This book is an essential read for anyone interested in the philosophical underpinnings of love and beauty Finck's insights resonate throughout history and remain relevant today compelling readers to reflect on how personal beauty shapes and is shaped by the experience of romantic love Demystifying the French Janet Hulstrand, 2019-01-26 Demystifying the French How to
