Loves Deceptions:

Love, Self-Deceit and Money Koen Stapelbroek, 2008-04-05 Love drives and gives life to the commerce of mankind Thus the sixteen year old Ferdinando Galiani 1728 1787 presented his project to understand the sociable nature of man This observation a reflection of his own position on the relation between trade and virtue hinted at what the mature works of Galiani one of the most noteworthy economists and wits in eighteenth century Italy would eventually yield In Love Self Deceit and Money Koen Stapelbroek reconstructs the Early Neapolitan Enlightenment debate on the morality of market societies a debate that hinged on the preservation of Naples independent statehood in a global arena of commercial and military competition Galiani rejected the moralizing and mercantile ideas of his contemporaries regarding the dangers threatening Naples and in his Della moneta 1751 he justified the systems set in place by the Neapolitan government With reference to early previously unstudied lectures on self deceptive Platonic love Koen Stapelbroek examines Galiani s role in the wider debate arguing that his early moral philosophical and historical work suggests a great deal about his political economic stance including his assertion that money is the ultimate ordering principle in the universe As a study of one of the most idiosyncratic minds of the Enlightenment period Love Self Deceit and Money shows how diverse ideas of the development of individual passions into social dispositions commerce and reform politics dovetailed seamlessly in the intellectual climate of eighteenth century Europe
