Studies of Missionary Leadership Robert Elliott Speer,2017-10-12 Excerpt from Studies of Missionary Leadership The Smyth Lectures for 1913 Delivered Before the Columbia Theological Seminary Columbia South Carolina IT is not by prescriptions of modes of action that the world s work gets itself done but by the power of God operating through men Some one once asked John Lawrence on whose iron will and immovable faith in God and his righteousness the Indian mutiny broke like foam upon a cliff by what methods he achieved such unique results in his administration of the Punjab the most wonderful piece of provincial administration in modern times if not in human history It is not my methods Lawrence replied it is my men Methods of action were of small significance when the men acting were John Lawrence and Henry his brother and Donald Mcleod and Herbert Edwardes and Richard

Temple and their associates Such men were fountains of ever fresh and varying modes of achievement Problems unfolded their solutions before them simply because these men with their luminous and creative energy moved forward upon them Men succeed not because they use successful methods They use such methods simply because they open themselves to the energy of the divine will which is ever seeking unhindered channels for its flow through human lives About the Publisher Forgotten Books publishes hundreds of thousands of rare and classic books Find more at www.forgottenbooks.com This book is a reproduction of an important historical work Forgotten Books uses state of the art technology to digitally reconstruct the work preserving the original format whilst repairing imperfections present in the aged copy In rare cases an imperfection in the original such as a blemish or missing page may be replicated in our edition We do however repair the vast majority of imperfections successfully any imperfections that remain are intentionally left to preserve the state of such historical works
