Missions And Empire:

   Missions and Empire Norman Etherington,2005-07-14 The idea that Christian missions went hand in hand with Imperialism and colonial conquest is challenged here By showing the variety of missions and the vital role played by indigenous men and women this book places missions in a long historical perspective Special attention is paid to emerging themes   Missions, Nationalism and the End of Empire Stanley,Alaine M. Low,2003 Christian missions have often been seen as the religious arm of Western imperialism What is rarely appreciated is the role they played in bringing about an end to the Western colonial empires after the Second World War Missions Nationalism and the End of Empire explores this neglected subject Respected authorities on the history of missions explore new territory in these chapters examining from diverse angles the linkages between Christianity nationalism and the dissolution of the colonial empires in Asia and Africa This work not only sheds light on the relation of religion and politics but also uncovers the sometimes paradoxical implications of the church s call to bring the gospel to all the world Contributors Daniel H Bays Philip Boobbyer Judith M Brown Richard Elphick Deborah Gaitskell Adrian Hastings Caroline Howell Ka che Yip Ogbu U Kalu Hartmut Lehmann Derek Peterson Andrew Porter Brian Stanley John Stuart   Religion Versus Empire? Andrew Porter,2004-10-29 This is the only book that addresses the relations between religion Protestant missions and empire building linking together all three fields of study by taking as its starting point the early eighteenth century Anglican initiatives in colonial North America and the Caribbean It considers how the early societies of the 1790s built on this inheritance and extended their own interests to the Pacific India the Far East and Africa Fluctuations in the vigor and commitment of the missions changing missionary theologies and the emergence of alternative missionary strategies are all examined for their impact on imperial expansion Other themes include the international character of the missionary movement Christianity s encounter with Islam and major figures such as David Livingstone the state and politics and humanitarianism all of which are viewed in a fresh light

   Missions and Empire Norman Etherington,2005 The idea that Christian missions went hand in hand with Imperialism and colonial conquest is challenged in this book By showing the variety of missions and the vital role played by indigenous men and women the text places missions in a long historical perspective   Pacifying Missions ,2023-03-13 Pacifying Missions provides the first sustained examination of peace and missionary work in the context of the British Empire It interrogates diverse missionary projects from Africa and the Pacific region unfolding a variegated world of ideas discourses and actions The volume yields compelling evidence for a reconsideration of peace as a vital focus for analysis in the history of Christian mission It also reveals a landscape of peace that was plural dynamic and contested worked out in specific contexts and deeply entangled with understandings and experiences of violence Contributors to this volume are Geoffrey Troughton Elizabeth Elbourne Jane Samson David Maxwell Norman Etherington Esme Cleall Amy Stambach Joanna Cruickshank and Bronwyn Shepherd   The Empire of Christ Bernard Lucas,1908   Evangelists of Empire? Amanda Barry,2008 Utilising

a range of source material and a variety of theoretical and methodological approaches this ground breaking collection offers the reader new ways of assessing the uneven paths of mission endeavours and examines the ways in which Indigenous peoples responded to and took ownership of aspects of Christian and Western culture and spirituality A Century of Missions in the Empire State Charles Wesley Brooks,1900 Protestant Children, Missions and Education in the British World Hugh Morrison,2021-11-29 At Christmas 1936 Presbyterian children in New Zealand raised over 400 for an x ray machine in a south Chinese missionary hospital From the early 1800s thousands of children in the British world had engaged in similar activities raising significant amounts of money to support missionary projects world wide But was money the most important thing Hugh Morrison argues that children s education was a more important motive and outcome This is the first book length attempt to bring together evidence from across a range of British contexts In particular it focuses on children s literature the impact of imperialism and nationalism and the role of emotions The Imperial Horizons of British Protestant Missions, 1880-1914 Andrew N. Porter,2003 Christian missions have long been associated with the growth of empire and colonial rule For just as long the nature and consequences of that association have provoked animated debate over such themes as culture and identity This volume brings together studies of changing attitudes and practices in Protestant missions during the hectic decades of European imperial and territorial expansion between 1880 and 1914 Written by acknowledged experts The Imperial Horizons of British Protestant Missions includes chapters on the imperial and ecclesiastical ambitions of the high church Society for the Propagation of the Gospel the role of empire as an arena for working out Christian understandings of atonement the international politics of the missionary movement conflicting understandings of race missionary strategies and the transfer of Western scientific knowledge Indian nationalist responses to Christian teaching and changing interpretations of Western missionary methods in China and of female missionary roles in South Africa Contributors D W Bebbington John W de Gruchy Deborah Gaitskell John M MacKenzie Chandra Mallampalli Steven Maughan Lauren F Pfister Andrew Porter Andrew C Ross Brian Stanley Nature and the Godly Empire Sujit Sivasundaram,2005-11-17 A study of the relations between nineteenth century science and Christianity Missions Howard Benjamin Grose,1911 A Century of Missions in the Empire State Charles Wesley Brooks,2016-09-28 Excerpt from A Century of Missions in the Empire State As Exhibited by the Work and Growth of the Baptist Missionary Convention of the State of New York While the writing of this work has been a delightful task it has cost an unexpected amount of labor Every effort has been made to secure accuracy of statement which appears to me to be of greater value than rhetor ical elegance If there are inaccuracies they are to be attributed rather to faulty sources of information than to carelessness of research About the Publisher Forgotten Books publishes hundreds of thousands of rare and classic books Find more at www forgottenbooks com This book is a reproduction of an important historical work Forgotten Books uses state of the art technology to digitally reconstruct the work preserving the original format whilst repairing imperfections present in the aged copy In rare cases an imperfection in the original such as a blemish or missing page may be replicated in our edition We do however repair the vast majority of imperfections successfully any imperfections that remain are intentionally left to preserve the state of such historical works   Nineteen Centuries of Missions Frances Ann Rousseau Scudder (Mrs.", "William W.
