Opera Today:

Opera Today Meirion Harries, Susie Harries, 1986      Opera in a Multicultural World Mary Ingraham, Joseph So, Roy Moodley, 2015-06-19 Through historical and contemporary examples this book critically explores the relevance and expressions of multicultural representation in western European operatic genres in the modern world. It reveals their approaches to reflecting identity, transmitting meaning and inspiring creation as well as the ambiguities and contradictions that occur across the time and places of their performance. This collection brings academic researchers in opera studies into conversation with previously unheard voices of performers, critics and creators to speak to issues of race, ethnicity and culture in the genre. Together they deliver a powerful critique of the perpetuation of the values and practices of dominant cultures in operatic representations of intercultural encounters. Essays accordingly cross methodological boundaries in order to focus on a central issue in the emerging field of coloniality: the hierarchies of social and political power that include the legacy of racialized practices. In theorizing coloniality through intercultural exchange in opera, authors explore a range of topics and case studies that involve immigrant, indigenous, exoticist and other cultural representations and consider a broad repertoire that includes lesser known Canadian, Chinese and African American performances as well as works by Haydn, Strauss, Puccini and Wagner, and in performances spanning three continents and over two centuries. In these ways the collection contributes to the development of a more integrated understanding of the interdisciplinary fields inherent in opera, including musicology, sociology, anthropology and others connected to Theatre, Gender and Cultural Studies.      Opera Alan Riding, Leslie Dunton-Downer, 2022-08-16 Experience the passion and drama of the world's greatest operas with this sumptuously illustrated visual guide. Immerse yourself in more than 75 years of the world's most celebrated operas and discover the fascinating stories behind them. Explore the lives of opera singers such as Maria Callas, Luciano Pavarotti and Jonas Kaufmann. Meet composers such as Mozart, Wagner and Britten, and the librettists with whom they collaborated to create the magical blends of words and music that make up opera. From its origins in the 17th century courts of Italy to live screenings in public spaces today, Opera: The Definitive Illustrated History follows the history of opera from Monteverdi's L'Orfeo in 1607 to Cosi fan Tutte, La Bohème and modern operas such as Brokeback Mountain. It explains musical terminology, traces historical developments and sets everything in cultural context. Filled with photographs of all the key figures and performances, this ebook revels in the sets and costumes that make up the grand spectacle of opera. It also explores the great opera houses of the world such as La Scala in Milan, the Met in New York and the Sydney Opera House. Opera: The Definitive Illustrated History is the essential book for anyone who wants to understand and enjoy the constantly evolving world of opera.      New Dramaturgies of Contemporary Opera Jingyi Zhang, 2024-09-16 New Dramaturgies of Contemporary Opera is the first and only book that approaches the dramaturgy of contemporary opera from the unique perspectives of living practitioners, composers, librettists, directors, producers, singers, dramaturgs and administrators who provide valuable first hand insight into the coming into being of an opera today The edited collection captures the ethos of contemporary opera making in the global context and serves as a timely intervention in addressing the array of heterogenous dramaturgical practices that go into making an opera today in an era of flux The collection is split into four parts Part I presents the new dramaturgical considerations that the field is currently exploring Part II investigates the ways in which non Western cultures and perspectives can and have been represented Part III explores the roles of space nature and environment in contemporary opera and finally Part IV looks at the ways in which technology has intersected with the creation of contemporary opera With perspectives from practitioners throughout this collection is essential reading for advanced students researchers and scholars of contemporary opera as well as practicing dramaturgs in this field

Claudio Monteverdi's Venetian Operas

Ellen Rosand,Stefano La Via,2022-07-01 Claudio Monteverdi's Venetian Operas features chapters by a group of scholars and performers of varied backgrounds and specialties who confront the various questions raised by Monteverdi's late operas from an interdisciplinary perspective The premise of the volume is the idea that constructive dialogue between musicologists and musicians stage directors and theater historians as well as philologists and literary critics can shed new light on Monteverdi's two Venetian operas and their respective librettos by Badoaro and Busenello not only at the levels of textual criticism historical exegesis and dramaturgy but also with regard to concrete choices of performance staging and mise en scène Following an Introduction setting up the interdisciplinary agenda the volume comprises two main parts Contexts and Sources deals with the historical philosophical and aesthetic contexts of the works librettos and scores Performance and Interpretation offers critical and historical insights regarding the casting singing reciting staging and conducting of the two operas This volume will appeal to scholars and researchers in Opera Studies and Music History as well as be of interest to early music performers and all those involved with presenting opera on stage

Curating Opera

Stephen Mould,2021-02-09 Curation as a concept and a catchword in modern parlance has over recent decades become deeply ingrained in modern culture The purpose of this study is to explore the curatorial forces at work within the modern opera house and to examine the functionaries and processes that guide them In turn comparisons are made with the workings of the traditional art museum where artworks are studied preserved restored displayed and contextualised processes which are also present in the opera house Curatorial roles in each institution are identified and described and the role of the celebrity art curator is compared with that of the modern stage director who has acquired previously undreamt of licence to interrogate operatic works overlaying them with new concepts and levels of meaning in order to reinvent and redefine the operatic repertoire for contemporary needs A point of coalescence between the opera house and the art museum is identified with the transformation towards the end of the nineteenth century of the opera house into the operatic museum Curatorial practices in the opera house are examined and further communalities and synergies in the way that works are defined in each institution are explored This study also considers the so called birth of opera around the start of the seventeenth century with reference to the near contemporary rise of the modern art museum outlining operatic practice and performance history over the last 400 years in order to identify the curatorial practices that have historically been employed in the maintenance and development of the repertoire This examination of the forces of curation within the modern opera house will highlight aspects of authenticity authorial intent preservation restoration and historically informed performance practice
