Missing From Home:

China's Homeless Generation Joshua Fan, 2011 China's Homeless Generation is a study of nearly two million Chinese who were displaced from home in Mainland China to the island of Taiwan. A result of the Chinese civil war between the Chinese Nationalist Party KMT and the Chinese Communist Party CCP, this massive migration began around 1948 and continued for more than a decade. The displacement officially lasted until November 1987 when they were legally allowed to return for the first time in nearly forty years. Collectively referred to as the Homeless Generation, this unique study makes extensive use of these survivors' own voices to formulate a truly fascinating story of a generation of Chinese who found themselves outsiders not just in Taiwan but in the places they called home. Joshua Fan provides a detailed picture of the exodus, the struggle to find a new home in Taiwan both physically and psychologically, and ultimately the experiences and effects of returning to the mainland decades later. This book will be of interest to students and scholars of Chinese history, the Chinese civil war, Chinese Diasporas, and China Studies in general.

Forest Leaves, 1921 The Role of Bioethics in Emotional Problems Susi Ferrarello, 2021-04-06 Following up from the previous book Human Emotions and the Origins of Bioethics, this volume focuses on four psychological problems: anxiety, narcissism, restlessness, and emotional numbness, and explores how these problems influence bioethical issues and what bioethics can do to fix them. The Role of Bioethics in Emotional Problems presents a phenomenological exploration of emotional intention and describes how one's choices can determine a better relationship to themselves and their community. Not only does this book provide the reader with an exhaustive account of the philosophical and psychological meaning of practical intentionality within Husserl's phenomenology, but it also applies
