Nelia Hyndman-Rizk

Mobile Memories:

Mobile Technologies Gerard Goggin, Larissa Hjorth, 2009-01-13 In light of emerging forms of software interfaces cultures of uses and media practices associated with mobile media this collection investigates the various ways in which mobile media is developing in different cultural linguistic social and national settings Specifically contributors consider the promises and politics of mobile media and its role in the dynamic social and gender relations configured in the boundaries between public and private spheres The collection is genuinely interdisciplinary as well as international in its range with contributors and studies from China Japan Korea Italy Norway France Belgium Britain and Australia

The Routledge Handbook of Mobile Socialities Annette Hill, Maren Hartmann, Magnus Andersson, 2021-05-06 This is a state of the art survey of an emerging area of study in media communication and cultural studies mobility studies and mobile communications Mobile socialities demarcates a new area of research that captures people's various and contrary experiences of media in relation to their mobilities and socialities The chapters in this volume are written by a range of international scholars offering a comprehensive overview and source of inspiration for a diverse range of topics on the contingent practices and finite resources of people and media on the move The book demonstrates through empirical and theoretical research how mobile socialities is a generative concept for thinking through power identity and the contexts of media in public and mediated spaces work and everyday life addressing a spectrum of mobile socialities and lived politics The research and various cases make visible previously hidden or obscured social practices and allow us to rethink the meanings of mobility digital media or the home in these examples of people living within the centre and peripheries of society The Handbook establishes mobile socialities as a new area of academic enquiry ideal for advanced undergraduate students and scholars across the disciplines of media communication and cultural studies anthropology cultural geography and sociology

Memory and the Management of Change Emily Keightley, Michael Pickering, 2017-11-09 This book shows how the mnemonic imagination creatively uses the resources of photography and music in the registering and management of change Looking in particular at major transitions and turning points it covers key issues of identity for the remembering subject and key scales of remembering in vernacular milieus The book explores the connections of memory and remembering with transformations in intimate relationships migration and spatial mobilities loss and bereavement involving loved ones or those with whom close affinities are felt resulting in a volume that helps fill the gap in memory studies caused by lack of sustained ethnographic work Drawing on extensive fieldwork on the processes and practices of remembering in everyday life it demonstrates how the mnemonic imagination is central to the management of change and transition and how its cross temporal interanimations of past present and future are fostered and facilitated by the visual and sonic resources of photography and recorded music

Mobile Media in the Asia-Pacific Larissa Hjorth, 2008-10-13 This book locates the mobile phone not just as a symbol of lifestyle but as a domestic technology that is very much subject to local nuances treating the mobile phone as much as a cultural artefact as a functional technology      Gender and Memory in the Global Age Anna Reading, 2016-09-08 This book asks how 21st century technologies such as the Internet mobile phones and social media are transforming human memory and its relationship to gender Each epoch brings with it new media technologies that have transformed human memory Anna Reading examines the ways in which globalised digital cultures are changing the gender of memory and memories of gender through a lively set of original case studies in the global age The study analyses imaginaries of gender memory and technology in utopian literature it provides an examination of how foetal scanning alters the gendered memories of the human being Reading draws on original research on women s use of mobile phones to capture and share personal and family memories as well as analysing changes to journalism and gendered memories focusing on the mobile witnessing of terrorism and state terror The book concludes with a critical reflection on Anna Reading s work as a playwright mobilising feminist memories as part of a digital theatre project Phenomenal Women with Fuel Theatre which created live and digital memories of inspirational women The book explains in depth Reading s original concept of digitised and globalised memory global memory and suggests how the scholar may use mobile methodologies to understand how memories travel and change in the global age      Mobile Erwin Craighead, 1930      Engineers of Yesteryear Alabama.
