Mobilizing For Peace:

Mobilizing for Peace Benjamin Gidron, Stanley Nider Katz, Yeheskel Hasenfeld, 2002 Focusing on the work of nongovernmental organizations NGOs in Northern Ireland South Africa Israel Palestine the contributors investigate the nature of these organizations how their social systems influence their functions structures Mobilizing for Peace Thomas R. Rochon, 2014-07-14 The crusade against nuclear weapons in Great Britain West Germany France and the Netherlands in the early 1980s dwarfed all previous protest movements in Western Europe in the postwar period What produced the demonstrations against NATO's decision in December 1979 to base 572 cruise and Pershing II missiles in five West European countries What generated the widespread support that the demonstrators enjoyed Contrary to the frequent claim that such political movements are a symptom of governmental crisis in the advanced industrial democracies Thomas Rochon develops the idea that they arise from a creative impulse and perform crucial functions of innovative criticism He concludes that the West European peace movement has ignited a public debate in which reduction or elimination of certain categories of nuclear weapons is taken seriously for the first time Among the topics examined are the sources of support for the peace movement in public opinion the types of people who joined or supported the movement and proposals they offered for a nonnuclear defense policy The author discusses the organization of the movement and its choice of tactics its impact on politics and the links between it and other institutions such as churches trade unions and political parties Originally published in 1988 The Princeton Legacy Library uses the latest print on demand technology to again make available previously out of print books from the distinguished backlist of Princeton University Press These editions preserve the original texts of these important books while presenting them in durable paperback and hardcover editions The goal of the Princeton Legacy Library is to vastly increase access to the rich scholarly heritage found in the thousands of books published by Princeton University Press since its founding in 1905 Organization and Mobilization in Modern American Peace Campaigns Robert Alan Kleidman, 1990 Winning the Peace Robert C. Orr, 2004-07-20 Events in Iraq Afghanistan and the Balkans have proved that failed and defeated states threaten the national security interests of the United States and the stability of entire regions But success in addressing these threats clearly depends on more than military might the post conflict period is equally crucial Case studies in this book examine the U S approach in Kosovo East Timor Sierra Leone Afghanistan and Iraq The book offers policy guidance on how to handle current reconstruction challenges and on building capacity to do a better job when America is inevitably called on to restore failed nations in the future Planning War, Pursuing Peace Paul A. C. Koistinen, 1998 The third volume in a magisterial five volume study of the political economy of American warfare The Christian Century, 1924 Mobilizing for Modern War Paul A. C. Koistinen, 1997 In this volume Koistinen examines war planning and mobilizing in an era of rapid industrialization and reveals how economic mobilization for defense and war is shaped at the national level by the interaction of political economic and military institutions and by increasingly powerful and expensive weaponry Annals of the American Academy of Political and Social Science ,1927 Historical Outlook ,1919 Today's Education National Education Association of the United States,1922

The Journal of the National Education Association National Education Association of the United States,1922 The American Friend ,1924 Peace David Cortright,2008-04-24 Veteran scholar and peace activist David Cortright offers a definitive history of the human striving for peace and an analysis of its religious and intellectual roots This authoritative balanced and highly readable volume traces the rise of peace advocacy and internationalism from their origins in earlier centuries through the mass movements of recent decades the pacifist campaigns of the 1930s the Vietnam antiwar movement and the waves of disarmament activism that peaked in the 1980s Also explored are the underlying principles of peace nonviolence democracy social justice and human rights all placed within a framework of realistic pacifism Peace brings the story up to date by examining opposition to the Iraq War and responses to the so called war on terror This is history with a modern twist set in the context of current debates about the responsibility to protect nuclear proliferation Darfur and conflict transformation Quarterly Publications of the American Statistical Association American Statistical Association,1921 A scientific and educational journal not only for professional statisticians but also for economists business executives research directors government officials university professors and others who are seriously interested in the application of statistical methods to practical problems in the development of more useful methods and in the improvement of basic statistical data

The Christian Leader ,1924 Mobilizing the Community Robert Fisher,Joseph M. Kling,1993-09-17 In an era of global transition contemporary grassroots organizing represents the dominant form of resistance available to people who seek to control their lives It is the basis for restoring public life empowering individuals and communities and challenging the state and the capital Through empirically based case studies and theoretical essays Mobilizing the Community discusses strategies tactics ideology and leadership often used in grassroots mobilization It covers citizen initiatives ethnic self help organizations community based development and service delivery programs political lobbying and advocacy efforts political party building and direct action protest groups The empowerment of various groups middle class suburbanites the poor women gay men lesbian women communists neopopulists workers immigrants hispanics and blacks is addressed This comprehensive volume provides powerful suggestions to scholars practitioners and analysts of urban studies and political science as well as activists This is a very useful volume Its emphasis on the process of community organizing leads to a focus on tactics strategy resource acquisition and alliance formation This compliments the more usual survey studies of movement participants which tend to be static and give equal weight to each individual Housing Studies Annual Report - Council on Religion and International Affairs Council on Religion and International Affairs,1927 Alumni Quarterly of Hamline University ,1913 Mobilizing for Peace William Pierson Merrill,World Alliance for International Friendship through the Churches,1923 N.E.A. Bulletin ,1922
