Managing My Period:

The Edge of Sex Lisa Speidel, Micah Jones, 2019-11-27 The Edge of Sex is an anthology of voices from the margins bringing together 37 writers to discuss their experiences of sex and sex education in America. The anthology explores often overlooked and excluded identities with pieces on sexuality and disabilities, survivors of assault, sex work as women of color, kink and BDSM, being Muslim and queer reproductive rights and the challenges of culture and identity when grappling with gender fluidity and gendered expectations. As they trace the negative effects of a restrictive fear-based sex education particularly on marginalized individuals, these stories unearth larger themes of tension with race and religion, expectations from heteronormative society and pressures of femininity and masculinity. Importantly, they also highlight the resilience and empowerment of marginalized individuals within a culture designed to ostracize them. The rich, diverse and intersectional stories of The Edge of Sex paint a contextualized picture of sex education and make an urgent case for better representation and more inclusive, consistent and comprehensive content. By reading this anthology, casual readers may learn more about their sexual selves; clinicians can apply the material to their practices with clients and educators and students can expand their knowledge of feminist theory, intersectional theory, queer theory and sex education.

Period Matters Farah Ahamed, 2022-06-30 Period Matters is a pathbreaking anthology on the diverse experiences of menstruation in South Asia. Menstruation, despite being a healthy and fundamental bodily process, is a topic often buried in fear and shame, and its discussion is even taboo in many societies. But a worldwide effort to bring conversations about menstruation and menstrual health into the open is now firmly underway. Period Matters carries this important endeavour forward by bringing together a breadth of perspectives from well-known figures as well as those whose voices are missing from the mainstream. Essays, artwork, stories, and poems from policymakers, entrepreneurs, artists, academics, activists, as well as interviews with those at the margins such as the homeless and those living with disabilities, explore myriad aspects of how menstruation is experienced in South Asia. While activist Granaz Baloch narrates how she defied traditional notions of tribal honour and conducted the first ever menstrual health workshop in Balochistan, Radha Paudel writes about her mission to have menstrual dignity acknowledged as a human right in Nepal. Shashi Tharoor relays his radical Menstrual Rights Bill which was tabled in the Lok Sabha in the Indian parliament. We hear from Erum about the challenges of getting one's period when incarcerated as Farzana and Chandan relate how mimicking the rituals of
