Managing State Social Workfrontline Management And The La:

The Oxford Handbook of Classics in Public Policy and Administration Steven J. Balla, Martin Lodge, Edward C. Page, 2015-03-26 This Handbook brings together a collection of leading international authors to reflect on the influence of central contributions or classics that have shaped the development of the field of public policy and administration. The Handbook reflects on a wide range of key contributions to the field selected on the basis of their international and wider disciplinary impact. Focusing on classics that contributed significantly to the field over the second half of the 20th century it offers insights into works that have explored aspects of the policy process of particular features of bureaucracy and of administrative and policy reforms. Each classic is discussed by a leading international scholars. They offer unique insights into the ways in which individual classics have been received in scholarly debates and disciplines how classics have shaped evolving research agendas and how the individual classics continue to shape contemporary scholarly debates. In doing so this volume offers a novel approach towards considering the various central contributions to the field. The Handbook offers students of public policy and administration state of the art insights into the enduring impact of key contributions to the field.

Undocumented and Unaccompanied Cecilia Menjívar, Krista Perreira, 2021-11-29 This book focuses on the migration of undocumented minors arriving recently to the United States and the European Union flows that are often labeled undocumented illegal or irregular and due to their sudden increase they have been described in the media policy circles and scholarly work as a surge or a crisis. Leading scholars examine the intricacies of the contexts that these minors encounter in the localities where they arrive including the legal and ethical frameworks for protecting unaccompanied minors governmental decisions about the best interests of the children these minors expressions of their own best interests or agency as they navigate immigration and social service systems conditions in detention centers and the health and social service needs in receiving communities. Though definitions and techniques for counting unaccompanied migrant minors differ between the U S and the EU this book underscores the immigrant minors common vulnerabilities and strategies they adopt to protect themselves and improve their circumstances At the same time contributors to the volume highlight common challenges that both European and U S governments face as they develop policy strategies and legal mechanisms to attempt to balance the best interests of these children with national interests of the countries in which they settle The chapters in this book were originally published as a special issue of the Journal of Ethnic and Migration Studies Social Text ,2005 Handbook of Psychology, Industrial and Organizational Psychology Irving B.
