

MANET

A VISIONARY IMPRESSIONIST

An impressionist painting of two men in a boat. The man on the left wears a dark beret and a light-colored, striped shirt, looking towards the viewer. The man on the right wears a straw hat with a red band and a striped shirt, looking down at something in his hands. The background shows a harbor with several boats and buildings in the distance under a hazy sky.

Pouzet-Duzer, 2013 Depuis les années cinquante il n'y a pas eu d'ouvrage publié en France qui soit consacré la seule question de l'impressionnisme littéraire. Ce livre se veut le pionnier d'un champ d'études encore aujourd'hui relativement inexploré tandis que les publications transatlantiques autour de la question de literary impressionism sont assez nombreuses depuis le début du XXI<sup>e</sup> siècle. L'approche choisie est volontairement clectique et le nom nologique l'œuvre impressionniste est au cœur de l'analyse. Ainsi les changements artistiques entre peintres et écrivains constituent-ils une manière de saisir ce qui au point de contact entre texte et image permet la naissance de l'idéologie de l'impressionnisme littéraire. Du côté de la peinture, Manet et Degas ont la part belle tandis que tous les genres littéraires de l'époque sont considérés par le biais d'auteurs aussi différents que Zola, Mallarmé, Goncourt, Verlaine, Bourget, Huysmans, Rimbaud et Daudet.

Painting and Sculpture in Europe, 1780 to 1800 Fritz Novotny, 1960 The Impressionists Martha Kapos, 1991 A group of young artists in 1874 in opposition to the established authority of the Salon and the Academy decided to show their work directly to the public in an exhibition which they organized themselves. The artists forming the core of this group Pissarro, Degas, Sisley, Cézanne, Monet, Renoir and Morisot came to be known as the Impressionists. Seen to be following the independent spirit of Manet they were immediately identified as the avant garde and their first exhibition became an historic landmark in the development of modern art. We now tend to see the landscapes of Impressionist paintings as perfect images of nature. It is easy to overlook their startling and fragmented appearance at the time they were painted. The documents in this book show how the paintings looked to contemporary eyes to both the critics and the artists. Some of the criticism these paintings received is almost as famous as the works themselves and several important documents appear here in English translation for the first time. The book tells the story of the personal struggles, debates, problems and solutions involved in a new way of painting that quickly led in unforeseen directions and took enormous risks with the traditional means of representing the world in art. These experiences are revealed in the letters and recorded comments of the artists themselves and in the writings of friends and contemporary critics many of whom such as Baudelaire, Zola, Valéry, Mallarmé, Huysmans, Laforgue and Mirbeau were also novelists and poets. The continuing interpretation of Impressionism within the changing art and art criticism of the twentieth century is examined through the writings of artists such as Léger, Kandinsky, Masson, Matisse and Hofmann as well as recent critics, philosophers and art historians including Meyer, Schapiro, Gaston, Bachelard, Clement, Greenberg and Lawrence, Gowing. The text is illustrated with 116 colour plates and 117 black and white reproductions of photographs, documents and contemporary cartoons, prints and drawings. After Harvard, Martha Kapos studied painting and the history of art at the Chelsea School of Art.

where she is now teaching Her art criticism has appeared in various magazines including Artscribe Art Monthly and Screen A collection of poems was published in 1989 by the Many Press     Subject Guide to Books in Print ,2001     The Pelican History of Art Nikolaus Pevsner,Judy Nairn,1960     The Literary Review ,2006     Artbibliographies Modern ,1998

The Impressionists and Their Legacy Martha Kapos,1995 The documents in this book letters and recorded comments by the artists themselves as well as selections by notable contemporaries including Baudelaire Zola Valery Mallarme Huysman Laforgue and Proust show how artists and critics during and in the aftermath of Impressionism did describe themselves how they responded to tradition to each other and to the kaleidoscope of the contemporary scene The ever expanding interpretation of Impressionism and its legacy within the changing world of twentieth century art and art criticism is examined through the writings of artists such as Leger Kandinsky Masson Matisse Bataille Klee and Hofmann as well as recent critics philosophers and art historians Accompanying the texts are 235 color plates of Impressionist and Post Impressionist masterpieces and 242 black and white reproductions of historical photographs original documents contemporary cartoons prints and drawings Jacket flap
