Mannerbys Lady:

The Book of Iowa Films Marty Knepper, John Lawrence, 2014-08-04 This is the first comprehensive history of films made in or about Iowa. It reflects some twenty years of collecting, lecturing and talking with some of Iowa's current generation of independent filmmakers. It covers the span from 1918 to 2013 and gives important background information on dozens of high-profile films such as the STATE FAIR films of 1933 and 1945, THE BRIDGES OF MADISON COUNTY, FIELD OF DREAMS and many others. It is designed as a companion for the State Historical Society's blockbuster Hollywood in the Heartland exhibition in Des Moines that is scheduled to run at least through 2016. The book has an interpretive essay covering the entire history as well as paragraph length descriptions of each film. A user friendly feature is the Index of Films which makes it easy to locate discussions of individual films. Marty Knepper is a featured commentator on video screens in the Hollywood in the Heartland exhibition. Marchman's Lady Caroline Brooks, 1986 Highland Lady Margaret Summerville, 1985

Lady Jane's Ribbons Sandra Heath, 1987 The Great Lady Tony Dawn Lindsey, 1986 Lady Antonia Burke was the most outrageous beauty in all the realm, the gloom in her proper papa's life and the agony of her swarm of suitors. Lucien St Clare was the most disgraceful lord in London having broken a legion of hearts. Love between these two was an accident bound to happen and woe to the partner who relinquished the upper hand. The New Orleans of Fiction James A. Kaser, 2014-07-29 The importance of New Orleans in American culture has made the city's place in the American imagination a crucial topic for literary scholars and cultural historians. While databases of bibliographical information on New Orleans centered fiction are available, they are of little use to scholars researching works written before the 1980s. In The New Orleans of Fiction: A Research Guide James A. Kaser provides detailed synopses for more than 500 works of fiction significantly set in New Orleans and published between 1836 and 1980. The synopses include plot summaries, names of major characters and an indication of physical settings. An appendix provides bibliographical information for works dating from 1981 well into the 21st century, while a biographical section provides basic information about the authors, some of whom are obscure and would be difficult to find in other sources. Written to assist researchers in locating works of fiction for analysis, the plot summaries highlight ways in which the works touch on major aspects of social history and cultural studies, i.e. class, ethnicity, gender, immigrant experience and race. The book is also a useful reader advisory tool for librarians and readers who want to identify materials for leisure reading, particularly since genre, juvenile and young adult fiction as well as literary fiction are included. But she is innocently involved in a scandal and banished to Mannerby in Dartmoor. Here the people seem to scorn her and her hosts, Paul and Melissa Ransome, only grudgingly make her welcome. But there is something sinister going on at Hob's Tor and there is witchery about. Regency Paranormal Romance by Sandra Heath, originally published by Signet as Mannerby's Lady.
