Asian American Short Story

Writers Guiyou Huang, 2003-06-30 Asian America has produced numerous short story writers in the 20th century Some emerged after World War II yet most of these writers have flourished since 1980 The first reference of its kind this volume includes alphabetically arranged entries for 49 nationally and internationally acclaimed Asian American writers of short fiction Each entry is written by an expert contributor and includes a biography a discussion of major works and themes a survey of the writer's critical reception and primary and secondary bibliographies Writers include Frank Chin Sui Sin Far Shirely Geok Lin Lim Toshio Mori and Bharati Mukherjee An introductory essay provides a close examination of the Asian American short story and the volume closes with a list of works for further reading Amerasia Journal ,1994

Becoming Modern Women Michiko Suzuki, 2009-11-10 Presenting a fresh examination of women writers and prewar ideology this book breaks new ground in its investigation of love as a critical aspect of Japanese culture during the early to mid twentieth century As a literary and cultural history of love and female identity Becoming Modern Women focuses on same sex love love marriage and maternal love new terms at that time in doing so it shows how the idea of woman within the context of a vibrant print culture was constructed through the modern experience of love Author Michiko Suzuki's work complements current scholarship on female identities such as Modern Girl and New Woman and interprets women's fiction in conjunction with nonfiction from a range of media early feminist writing sexology books newspapers bestselling love treatises native ethnology and historiography While illuminating the ways in which women used and challenged ideas about love Suzuki explores the historical and ideological shifts of the period underscoring the broader connections between gender modernity and nationhood

Pedagogies of the Global Arif Dirlik, 2015-12-03 The essays in this collection address questions raised by a modernity that has become global with the victory of capitalism over its competitors in the late twentieth century Rather than erase difference by converting all to European American norms of modernity capitalist modernity as it has gone global has empowered societies once condemned to imprisonment in premodernity or tradition to make their own claims on modernity on the basis of those very traditions as filtered through experiences of colonialism neocolonialism or simple marginalization by the forces of globalization Global modernity appears presently not as global homogeneity but as a site of conflict between forces of homogenization and heterogenization within and between nations Prominent in this context are conflicts over different ways of knowing and organizing the world The essays here dealing for the most part with education in the United States engage in critiques of hegemonic ways of knowing and critically evaluate counterhegemonic voices for change that are heard from a broad spectrum of social ethnic and indigenous perspectives Crucial to the essays critique of hegemony in contemporary pedagogy is an effort shared by the contributors distinguished scholars in their various fields to overcome area and or disciplinary boundaries and take the wholeness of everyday life as
