Miss Iceland:

Miss Iceland Auður Ava Ólafsdóttir, 2020-06-16 Will appeal to readers of Elena Ferrante and Margaret Atwood the unusual setting offers an interesting twist on the portrait of an artist as a young woman Bookpage In 1960s Iceland Hekla dreams of being a writer In a nation of poets where each household proudly displays leatherbound volumes of the Sagas and there are more writers per capita than anywhere else in the world there is only one problem she is a woman After packing her few belongings including James Joyce's Ulysses and a Remington typewriter Hekla heads for Reykjavik with a manuscript buried in her bags She moves in with her friend Jon a gay man who longs to work in the theatre but can only find dangerous backbreaking work on fishing trawlers Hekla's opportunities are equally limited marriage and babies or her job as a waitress in which harassment from customers is part of the daily grind The two friends feel completely out of place in a small and conservative world And yet that world is changing JFK is shot Hemlines are rising In Iceland another volcano erupts and Hekla meets a poet who brings to light harsh realities about her art as she realizes she must escape to find freedom abroad whatever the cost Miss Iceland a winner of two international book awards comes from the acclaimed author of Hotel Silence which received the Icelandic Literary Prize Only a great book can make you feel you're really there a thousand miles and a generation away I loved it Kit de Waal author of My Name is Leon A winning tale of friendship and self fulfillment Publishers Weekly starred review Alaska Spike Walker, 2002-02-18 A collection of stories of adventure by various authors about the Alaskan wilderness Includes stories by the following authors Spike Walker Larry Kaniet Lew Freedman Gary Paulsen Jean Aspen Ann Mariah Cook Jack London Roger A Caras Dana Stabenow John Muir Washington Irving and many more Bananas, Beaches and Bases Cynthia Enloe, 2014-05-16 In this brand new radical analysis of globalization Cynthia Enloe examines recent events Bangladeshi garment factory deaths domestic workers in the Persian Gulf Chinese global tourists and the UN gender politics of guns to reveal the crucial role of women in international politics today With all new and updated chapters Enloe describes how many women's seemingly personal strategies in their marriages in their housework in their coping with ideals of beauty are in reality the stuff of global politics Enloe offers a feminist gender analysis of the global politics of both masculinities and femininities dismantles an apparently overwhelming world system and reveals that system to be much more fragile and open to change than we think "The" Year's Art, 1898 Iceland, 2004 Intersecting Worlds Jenna Grace Sciuto, 2025-01-15 Intersecting Worlds Colonial Liminality in US Southern and Icelandic Literatures recalibrates readings of US southern and American writers by exploring comparable depictions of race colonialism Whiteness gender and sexuality in Icelandic literature This book explores the liminality ambiguity and general unease that result when postcolonial theories are applied to both Iceland and the US South It investigates the parallels and also the limitations to such comparisons with the labels and binaries created to represent colonial dynamics flattening the complex positionings of Iceland and the US South Iceland an independent nation since 1944

has a complex colonial history As a former dependency of Denmark that endured a US military presence from 1941 to 2006 Iceland's global positioning invites comparisons to formerly colonized spaces At the same time Iceland's history and geopolitical location differ from other colonized nations which were subject to brutal violence and dehumanizing practices This comparative project investigates Iceland's colonial liminality and draws connections to the colonial ambiguity of the US South depicted as colonized by the federal government during Reconstruction and the site of the colonization of the Black population through slavery and its later iterations Exploring the work of US southern writers like William Faulkner Gayl Jones Jean Toomer and Carson McCullers alongside twentieth century Icelandic novelists including Halldór Laxness Svava Jakobsdóttir Guðbergur Bergsson and Frjáslaug Sigurðsdóttir on both thematic and aesthetic levels reveals much about each region's history and the complexity of colonial dynamics Intersecting Worlds centers layers of Whiteness in both national and transnational contexts challenges ideas of Nordic and US southern exceptionalism and exposes the complex impacts of colonialism in the Global North and the Global South as depicted in twentieth century literature Iceland Review, 2003
