take years to pay off These insidious penalties are used to raise money for broken local and state budgets often overseen by for profit companies and it is one of the central issues of the criminal justice reform movement In the tradition of Evicted and The New Jim Crow Messenger has written a call to arms shining a light on a two tiered system invisible to most Americans He introduces readers to three single mothers caught up in this system living in poverty in Missouri Oklahoma and South Carolina whose lives are upended when minor offenses become monumental financial and personal catastrophes As these women struggle to clear their debt and move on with their lives readers meet the dogged civil rights advocates and lawmakers fighting by their side to create a more equitable and fair court of justice In this remarkable feat of reporting Tony Messenger exposes injustice that is agonizing and infuriating in its mundane cruelty as he champions the rights and dignity of some of the most vulnerable Americans
