Pacific Beach:

Pacific Beach John Fry,2002-10-01 Pacific Beach California was founded in 1887 by land speculators after the establishment of the railroad to San Diego which resulted in the formation of many ocean side communities A land boom ensued yet was short lived due to the Great Depression of the 1890s World War II brought a torrent of people to Pacific Beach workers sailors and Marines as well as their families increasing its population five fold After the war many residents remained thus ensuring the growth of the community and the number of businesses schools and local services A photographic history Pacific Beach includes images that illustrate the community s birth hardships and prosperity since its incorporation as well as the people places and attractions that today make the area a well known destination for visitors from around the world Featuring images of some of Pacific Beach s most historic landmarks including the Crystal Pier and the Brown Military Academy as well as local businesses architecture and churches this pictorial tribute celebrates the history of this San Diego suburb from its earliest days

Pacific Beach Through Time John Fry,Nancy Wingo,2018 Founded as a college community in 1887 Pacific Beach was a rural suburb of San Diego during the first part of the twentieth century WWII brought a five fold increase in its population and it became a community of family homes In the latter part of the century those homes were increasingly replaced with apartment buildings and the population changed to young people looking for fun in the sun That trend has only increased in this early part of this century Old structures disappear on a daily basis replaced with businesses catering to a younger crowd Only a few homes survive from the town s earliest years and a handful of business buildings from the 1920s Unlike the solid brick buildings in the East structures in Pacific Beach change and change and change again Color photos of the old Pacific Beach are a treat to young and old

Originally Pacific Beach John Webster,2013-11-27 Pacific Beach now a lively suburb of San Diego began as a quiet college town today s popular watering hole was then proud to have no saloons The community also once hosted one of San Diego s most important industrial sites and its premier sports venue and all of this was tied together and connected to downtown by the latest in public transit Hundreds of acres of prime agricultural land produced carloads of fruit and later flowers and then much of it was expropriated to house thousands of wartime defense workers Along the way generations of manly boys were introduced to military drill and discipline while pretty and popular girls enjoyed elegant garden parties at a beachfront mansion and they sometimes met and even married Virtually nothing from this earlier era remains to be seen in Pacific Beach today even the most monumental landmarks have disappeared But records and accounts buried in the archives for a century or more have now been brought to light and these long gone days brought to life in Originally Pacific Beach Looking Back at the Heritage of a Unique Community a few landmarks have survived too if you know where to look
