ahead of its time and visionary For the modern reader the complex analytical theories behind Moby Dick may get in the way of enjoying the novel for its own sake Taking Moby Dick at face value it is an interesting tale rich with diverse characters and evocative themes like friendship class and social status good and evil isolation and community the existence of God obsession and human perception A vivid depiction of life aboard ship in the nineteenth century it is perhaps the most detailed and accessible existing picture of what was for a time the richest industry in the United States If at times the text seems stilted or antiquated as might be expected from any work from this era it is equally true that at times the text attains a soaring almost lyric tone The most casual reader cannot fail to appreciate the unforgettable characters compelling storyline and vivid depictions of whales whalers and whaling and the obsession driven quest after the great white whale upon which Ahab leads and the crew follows to their doom And this without anything more makes Moby Dick essential reading

Moby Dick or The Whale is a novel by American writer Herman Melville published in 1851 during the period of the American Renaissance. Sailor Ishmael tells the story of the obsessive quest of Ahab, captain of the whaler the Pequod, for revenge on Moby Dick, the white whale that on the previous whaling voyage bit off Ahab's leg at the knee. The novel was a commercial failure and out of print at the time of the author's death in 1891, but during the 20th century its reputation as a Great American Novel was established.

Summary: Ishmael travels in December from Manhattan Island to New Bedford with plans to sign up for a whaling voyage. The inn where he arrives is so crowded he must share a bed with the tattooed Polynesian Queequeg, a harpooneer whose father was king of the fictional island of Rokovoko. The next morning Ishmael and Queequeg attend Father Mapple's sermon on Jonah, then head for Nantucket. Ishmael signs up with the Quaker ship owners Bildad and Peleg for a voyage on their whaler Pequod. Peleg describes Captain Ahab: "He's a grand, ungodly, god-like man who nevertheless has his humanities." They hire Queequeg the following morning. A man named Elijah prophesies a dire fate should Ishmael and Queequeg join Ahab. While provisions are loaded, shadowy figures board the ship. On a cold Christmas Day the Pequod leaves the harbor. Ishmael discusses cetology, the zoological classification and natural history of the whale, and describes the crew members. The chief mate is 30-year-old Starbuck, a Nantucket Quaker with a realist mentality whose harpooneer is Queequeg; second mate is Stubb from Cape Cod, happy-go-lucky and cheerful, whose harpooneer is Tashtego, a proud pure-blooded Indian from Gay Head; and the third mate is Flask from Martha's Vineyard, short stout. "Extrait I stuffed a shirt or two into my old carpet bag, tucked it under my arm, and started for Cape Horn and the Pacific. Quitting the good city of old Manhatta, I duly arrived in New Bedford. It was a Saturday night in December. Much was I disappointed upon learning that the little packet for Nantucket had already sailed, and that no way of reaching that place would offer till the following Monday. As most young candidates for the pains and penalties of whaling stop at this same New Bedford thence to embark on their voyage, it may as well be related that I for one had no idea of so doing. For my mind was made up to sail in no other than a Nantucket craft, because there was a fine boisterous something about everything connected with that famous old island which amazingly pleased me. Besides, though New Bedford has of late been gradually monopolising the business of whaling, and though in this matter poor old Nantucket is now much behind her, yet Nantucket was her great original, the Tyre of this Carthage, the place where the first dead American whale was stranded. Where else but from Nantucket did those aboriginal whalers, the Red Men, first sally out in canoes to give chase to the Leviathan? And where but from Nantucket too did that first adventurous little sloop put forth partly laden with imported cobblestones so goes the story to throw at the whales in order to discover when they were nigh enough to risk a harpoon from the bowsprit Biography Herman Melville August 1 1819 September 28 1891 was an American novelist short story writer and poet of the American Renaissance period His best known works include Typee 1846 a romantic account of his experiences in Polynesian life and his whaling novel Moby Dick 1851 His work was almost forgotten during his last thirty years His writing draws on his experience at sea as a common sailor exploration of literature and philosophy and engagement in the contradictions of American society in a period of rapid change He developed a complex baroque style
