the ongoing cultural genocide caused by China's subjection of Tibet

The Origins of Religious Violence Nicholas F. Gier, 2014-08-20 Religiously motivated violence caused by the fusion of state and religion occurred in medieval Tibet and Bhutan and later in imperial Japan but interfaith conflict also followed colonial incursions in India Sri Lanka and Burma Before that time there was a general premodern harmony among the resident religions of the latter countries and only in the late nineteenth and twentieth centuries did religiously motivated violence break out While conflict caused by Hindu fundamentalists has been serious and widespread a combination of medieval Tibetan Buddhists and modern Sri Lankan Japanese and Burmese Buddhists has caused the most violence among the Asian religions However the Chinese Taiping Christians have the world record for the number of religious killings by one single sect A theoretical investigation reveals that specific aspects of the Abrahamic religions an insistence on the purity of revelation a deity who intervenes in history but one who still is primarily transcendent may be primary causes of religious conflict Only one factor a mystical monism not favored in Judaism Christianity and Islam was the basis of a distinctively Japanese Buddhist call for individuals to identify totally with the emperor and to wage war on behalf of a divine ruler The Origins of Religious Violence An Asian Perspective uses a methodological heuristic of premodern modern and constructive postmodern forms of thought to analyze causes and offer solutions to religious violence

Tibetan Ritual Jose Ignacio Cabezon, 2009-12-08 Ritual is one of the most pervasive religious phenomena in the Tibetan cultural world Despite its ubiquity and importance to Tibetan cultural life however only in recent years has Tibetan ritual been given the attention it deserves This is the first scholarly collection to focus on this important subject Unique in its historical geographical and disciplinary breadth this book brings together eleven essays by an international cast of scholars working on ritual texts institutions and practices in the greater Tibetan cultural world Tibet Nepal Bhutan and Mongolia While most of the chapters focus on Buddhism two deal with ritual in Tibet's indigenous Bon religion All of the essays are original to this volume An extensive introduction by the editor provides a broad overview of Tibetan ritual and contextualizes the chapters within the field of Buddhist and Tibetan studies The book should find use in advanced undergraduate courses and graduate seminars on Tibetan religion It will also be of interest to students and scholars of ritual generally

The Tibet Society Bulletin, 1976

Ruthless Compassion Robert N. Linrothe, 1999 The historical development of Esoteric Buddhism in India is still known only in outline A few verifiably early texts do give some insight into the origin of the ideas which would later develop and spread to East and Southeast Asia and to Tibet However there is another kind of evidence which can be harnessed to the project of reconstructing the history of Esoteric Buddhist doctrines and practice This evidence consists of art objects mainly sculpture which survive in significant numbers from the 6th to the 13th century
