Veteran hiker and outdoor writer Fred Barstad will introduce you to these trails and many more. Inside you'll find up-to-date trail information, maps, photos and elevation profiles, information on bears and cougars, difficulty, maintenance and traffic ratings for each hike, access information to the Dihedrals climbing area. Author and trail runner Lucas Alberg provides detailed descriptions of the area's best loop runs, including several new trails added within recent years. From classic high desert runs to the east in the Badlands to mountain escapes and high alpine scenery to the west in the Cascades, the guide highlights the unique and diverse geography that Central Oregon has to offer. Unlike other guidebooks, Trail Running Bend and Central Oregon is organized by season so runners can know when to hit the right trails at the right times throughout the year. The 50 routes described in the book are all located within 65 miles of Bend, which means that trail runners will spend more time doing what they love to do instead of spending time behind the windshield in anticipation. The Bozeman trail; historical accounts of the blazing of the overland routes into the Northwest, and the fights with Red Cloud's warriors Grace Raymond Hebard, 1922 The National Magazine, 1922
