Language Learning with Technology Graham Stanley, 2013-04-04 Contains over 130 practical classroom activities suitable for beginners to more advanced learners incorporating a wide range of up to date tools such as mobile technologies and social networking Page 4 of cover Ideas and Options in English for Specific Purposes Helen Basturkmen, 2014-03-14 This volume presents a range of views about language learning and teaching in English for Specific Purposes ESP Its purpose is to go beyond individual cases and practices to examine the approaches and ideas on which they are based The aim is for readers to adopt an analytical stance toward the field and to identify current perspectives in ESP and the ideas driving them Ideas and Options in English for Specific Purposes does not promote any one approach but rather identifies and illustrates those in evidence today The main emphasis is on the links between theory and ESP teaching and research Ideas from linguistics sociolinguistics education SLA and social theories are described Links are then made between these ideas and ESP course designs instructional materials and research projects Thus the book moves back and forth between descriptions of theories teaching practice and research Part I introduces the book's approach to description of ESP and the framework used to investigate it Part II examines ideas of language learning and teaching in ESP Recognizing that ESP is taught in many different countries and contexts the author draws on a wide range of examples of teaching practice and research from around the world and from different branches of ESP including English for Academic Purposes English for Professional Purposes and English for Vocational Purposes From Chapter 3 onward each chapter includes Questions for Discussion and Projects to encourage readers to research and analyze the practices of ESP in their own contexts and to consider the ideas they draw on in their own teaching This text is geared toward graduate level TESOL education courses Handbook of Research on Technology-Centric Strategies for Higher Education Administration Tripathi, Purnendu, Mukerji, Siran, 2017-06-05 Although the advancement of educational technologies is often discussed in a teaching capacity the administration aspect of this research area is often overlooked Studying the impact technology has on education administration not only allows us to become familiar with the most current trends and techniques in this area but also allows us to discover the best way forward in all aspects of education The Handbook of Research on Technology Centric Strategies for Higher Education Administration is a pivotal resource covering the latest scholarly information on the application of digital media among aspects of tertiary education administration such as policy governance marketing leadership and development Featuring extensive coverage on a broad range of topics and perspectives including virtual training blogging and e learning this book is ideally designed for policy makers researchers and educators seeking current research on administrative based technology applications within higher education Multilingual Perspectives in Geolinguistics: 2nd Edition Hikaru Kitabayashi, 2015 Multilingual Perspectives in Geolinguistics 2nd Edition is a publication of the American Society of Geolinguistics created with the active participation of its Japanese membership The 2nd edition is a significantly expanded version with new chapters contributed by special request of the editorial staff The editors in chief are Professor Wayne Finke of Baruch College City University of New York and Professor Hikaru Kitabayashi of Daito Bunka University The object was to offer potential readers a more complete introduction to current literature dealing with geolinguistic themes than was the case with the first edition with Geolinguistics being defined as the study of languages and varieties of language in contact and or conflict This 2nd edition also contains many small corrections to the original text and it is to be hoped that it will offer a more satisfying experience than was possible with the first edition which due to its historical interest is being kept in print for the time being Resources in Education ,2001 Teaching and

Researching Chinese EFL/ESL Learners in Higher Education Zhongshe Lu,Meihua Liu,Wenxia Zhang,2021-06-21 China has attached great importance to teaching students to become proficient users of English Yet despite a plethora of studies and practice on Chinese ESL EFL English as a second foreign language learners the large student population its complicated composition and the complex nature of second and foreign language learning have rendered it difficult to offer a panoramic view on ESL EFL teaching and learning of Chinese learners This book provides a new and up to date perspective on the teaching and learning of Chinese ESL EFL learners The book collects 15 case studies falling into two parts Curriculum Development and Teaching Practice and Skills Based Research The collected studies deploy qualitative quantitative or mixed methods to explore patterns features developments and causes and effects of a variety of issues in the sphere of ESL EFL teaching and learning Moreover the cases offer insights that are relevant beyond the mainland Chinese context such as Hong Kong Macau Britain and Australia Students and scholars of TESOL and applied linguistics will be interested in this title

Teaching and learning in higher education: The role of emotion and cognition Jian-Hong Ye,Mei Yen Chen,Yung-Wei Hao,2023-07-24 100 Ideas for Teaching Languages Nia Griffith,2005 100 Ideas for Teaching Languages contains 100 creative and innovative ideas for getting students engaged in speaking and understanding languages Ideas range from solving murder mysteries to using celebrity magazines Teaching Ideas and Resources for African Languages ,1992 Teaching to Read James Laughlin Hughes,1909 The Gregg Shorthand Magazine ,1927

Teaching and Learning Languages Jemma Buck,Christopher Wightwick,2013-03-05 This publication provides essential reading for any language teacher Pupil engagement in the language learning process is key to success and with this in mind the authors provide a comprehensive list of ideas as well as explaining the underlying principles of successful language learning Neil Jones Assistant Headteacher Learning a language especially in a class or group is an intensely practical subject Active participation by students is the key to successful language learning at any age or ability level This book offers teachers a multitude of practical activities in which students take the lead and clearly links these to the various linguistic and pragmatic skills The book provides clear and comprehensive guidance on the classroom environment models of teaching and learning and assessment It aims to help teachers plan engaging lessons which will enable all students to develop the key skills of speaking listening reading and writing in the target language Topics covered include The essentials of language learning Use of the target language training the ear and training the voice Exploiting audio and video recordings Exploiting texts and pictures Using stories and drama in the classroom and independent reading Making good use of written work Integrating multimedia resources and the Internet across the language skills Integrating grammar into communication Teaching and Learning Languages has been written in line with national and European language policies reflecting contemporary trends in the teaching and learning of languages The text's focus on active learning and its indispensable guidance for planning lessons make it essential reading for all trainee and practising teachers Standards Series for Appropriate and Effective Educational Programs for Limited English Students ,1987 Publications American and Canadian Committees on Modern Languages,1928 Werner's Magazine ,1899 The Individual in the Making

Edwin Asbury Kirkpatrick,1911 In this volume it is proposed to discuss the development of individual human minds chiefly from the subjective point of view The educator like the mariner needs a chart by which he may guide the child into the most favoring channels and past the most serious dangers that are found in each stage of development from childhood to maturity The author believes that the descriptions and suggestions herein given lead toward the truth The ideas as expressed are not given as final truth for the guidance of psychologists and educators but as a formulation of facts and principles to be corrected and completed by further scientific investigations and tested by practical educational experience It is hoped that the work is sufficiently concrete and specific to be of interest and value to parents and teachers who have not received much training in psychology It will be of most value however to those who have had a good deal of experience with children
