A History of Conversion to Islam in the United States, Volume 2 Patrick D. Bowen, 2017-09-11 In A History of Conversion to Islam in the United States Volume 2 The African American Islamic Renaissance 1920 1975 Patrick D Bowen offers an in depth account of African American Islam as it developed in the United States during the fifty five years that followed World War I Having been shaped by a wide variety of intellectual and social influences the African American Islamic Renaissance appears here as a movement that was characterized by both great complexity and diversity Drawing from a wide variety of sources including dozens of FBI files rare books and periodicals little known archives and interviews and even folktale collections Patrick D Bowen disentangles the myriad social and religious factors that produced this unprecedented period of religious transformation

Saints and Role Models in Judaism and Christianity Marcel Poorthuis, Joshua J. Schwartz, 2004-01-01 This volume deals with the role of saints and exemplary individuals in Judaism and Christianity Although sharing the Hebrew Bible and recognizing the same Biblical figures there both religions have developed widely divergent perspectives upon the significance of these figures although there are occasional common motifs and themes Moreover even the contrasting themes betray an underlying interaction between both religions as is clear from the contributions on for example Melchizedek Elijah the Desert Fathers Rabbis on clothing the Apostle Peter in Jewish tradition the Maccabees in Christian tradition and the Biblical examples in Saint Antony the Hermit The book examines Jewish and Christian perspectives upon saints and role models from the Biblical period to the present time It will be of special
