Ordinary Cities Between Modernity And Development:

Ordinary Cities Jennifer Robinson, 2013-07-04 With the urbanization of the world's population proceeding apace and the equally rapid urbanization of poverty urban theory has an urgent challenge to meet if it is to remain relevant to the majority of cities and their populations many of which are outside the West This groundbreaking book establishes a new framework for urban development It makes the argument that all cities are best understood as ordinary and crosses the longstanding divide in urban scholarship and urban policy between Western and other cities especially those labelled Third World It considers the two framing axes of urban modernity and development and argues that if cities are to be imagined in equitable and creative ways urban theory must overcome these axes with their Western bias and that resources must become at least as cosmopolitan as cities themselves Tracking paths across previously separate literatures and debates this innovative book a postcolonial critique of urban studies traces the outlines of a cosmopolitan approach to cities drawing on evidence from Rio Johannesburg Lusaka and Kuala Lumpur Key urban scholars and debates from Simmel Benjamin and the Chicago School to Global and World Cities theories are explored together with anthropological and developmentalist accounts of poorer cities Offering an alternative approach Ordinary Cities skilfully brings together theories of urban development for students and researchers of urban studies geography and development

Ordinary cities J Robinson, 2006 Exhibiting Modernity and Indonesian Vernacular Architecture Yulia Nurliani Lukito, 2015-10-16 In her research Yulia Nurliani Lukito analyses modernity and the construction of culture by the authorities using the images of Indonesian vernacular architecture presented at three different sites and times She argues that modernity is not solely constructed by the authorities rather it is an ongoing process modified by visitors of exhibitions Pasar Gambir was a laboratory of modernity for the colony and an important stage in modernizing and negotiating cultural and social conditions in the colony The Dutch Pavilion at the 1931 colonial exhibition became a moment when the Indies heritages played a role in marking colonial territory Modern ethnographic park of Taman Mini gives a way to the making of an official authentic culture and suppresses the previous Dutch construction of the Indies culture

Writing Windhoek Ellison Tjirera, 2025-10-01 Small cities have something to offer in terms of theoretical resources and renewing our understanding of urban life In other words all cities do matter and are therefore worthy of drawing from Condemning insignificant cities to oblivion is a travesty that will leave urban studies poorer Importantly no city is reducible to one register in the representation of its essence In Writing Windhoek Ellison Tjirera makes an attempt to revivify the Capital city of Namibia and treat it as an idea meriting a closer examination and reflection In illuminating the essence of Windhoek's cityness this book traces its history of spatial segregation an imprint that continues to define contemporary city life The cultural memory of Windhoek is analysed as a way of accessing what is otherwise a not so obvious strand through which to understand a city that has escaped a sustained scholarly rendition In his further layering of the city Tjirera provides a portrait of Windhoek through urban fantasies regimes of the legal and how migration is implicated in shaping social heterogeneity and concatenations of various urban rhythms Cities and Metaphors Somaiyeh Falahat, 2018-04-19 Introducing a new concept of urban space Cities and Metaphors encourages a theoretical realignment of how the city is experienced thought and discussed In the context of Islamic city studies relying on reasoning and rational thinking has reduced descriptive vivid features of the urban space into a generic scientific framework Phenomenological characteristics have consequently been ignored rather than integrated into theoretical components The book argues that this results from a lack of appropriate conceptual vocabulary in our global body of scholarly literature It challenges existing theories introduces and applies the concept of Hezar tu a thousand insides to rethink the spaces in historic cores of Fez Isfahan and Tunis This tool constructs a staging post towards a different articulation of urban space based on spatial physical virtual symbolic and social edges and thresholds nodes of sociospatial relationships zones of containment state of intermediacy and thus a logic of ambiguity rather than determinacy Presenting alternative narrations of paths through sequential discovery of spaces this book brings the sensual features of urban space into the focus The book finally shows that concepts derived from local contexts enable us to tailor our methods and theoretical structures to the idiosyncrasies of each city while retaining the global commonalities of all Hence in broader terms it contributes to a growing awareness that urban studies should be more inclusive by bringing the diverse global contexts of cities into the body of our urban knowledge

Cities of the Global South Reader Faranak Miraftab, Neema Kudva, 2014-10-10 The Cities of the Global South Reader adopts a fresh and critical approach to the field of urbanization in the developing world The Reader incorporates both early and emerging debates about the diverse trajectories of urbanization processes in the context of the restructured global alignments in the last three decades Emphasizing the historical legacies of colonialism the Reader recognizes the entanglement of conditions and concepts often understood in binary relations first third worlds wealth poverty development underdevelopment and inclusion exclusion By asking whose city whose development the Reader rigorously highlights the fractures along lines of class race gender and other socially and spatially constructed hierarchies in global South cities The Reader's thematic structure where editorial introductions accompany selected texts examines the issues and concerns that urban dwellers planners and policy makers face in the contemporary world These include the urban economy housing basic services infrastructure the role of non state civil society based actors planned interventions and contestations the role of diaspora capital the looming problem of adapting to climate change and the increasing spectre of violence in a post 9 11 transnational world The Cities of the Global South Reader pulls together a diverse set of readings from scholars across the world some of which have been written specially for the volume to provide an essential resource for a broad interdisciplinary readership at undergraduate and postgraduate levels in urban geography urban sociology and urban planning as well as disciplines related to international and development studies Editorial commentaries that introduce the central issues for each theme summarize the state of the field and outline an associated bibliography They will be of particular value for lecturers students and researchers making the Cities of the Global South Reader a key text for those interested in understanding contemporary urbanization processes

Global Urban Spaces Madhumita Roy, Anjali Gera Roy, 2025-11-01 From the pre Islamic Jahilia early modern Sikri and Florence to postcolonial Bombay and Karachi cities have played a pivotal role in Salman Rushdie s fiction This book focuses on spatial concerns and urban imaginaries in his works challenging the dominant metropolitan discourse on cities under globalization Rushdie s works prominently feature cities of the Global South while they explores in great detail the figure of the postcolonial migrant This book analyses the dynamic cities described in Midnight s Children 1981 The Satanic Verses 1988 The Moor s Last Sigh 1995 and The Ground Beneath Her Feet 1999 and discusses the idea of the global urban It examines how these works explore alternative geo histories the idea of global homes and the idea of cities as sites of conflict and contestation where histories and memories are embedded and reimaged This book will be useful for scholars and researchers of literature urban studies cultural studies postcolonial studies sociology Indian English and South Asian literature

Key Thinkers on Cities Regan Koch, Alan Latham, 2017-05-22 Key Thinkers on Cities provides an engaging introduction to the dynamic intellectual field of urban studies It profiles the work of 40 innovative thinkers who represent the broad reach of contemporary urban scholarship and whose ideas have shaped the way cities around the world are understood researched debated and acted upon Providing a synoptic overview that spans a wide range of academic and professional disciplines theoretical perspectives and methodological approaches the entry for each key thinker comprises A succinct introduction and overview Intellectual biography and research focus An explication of key ideas Contributions to urban studies The book offers a fresh look at well known thinkers who have been foundational to urban scholarship including Jane Jacobs Henri Lefebvre Manuel Castells and David Harvey It also incorporates those who have helped to bring a concern for cities to more widespread audiences such as Jan Gehl Mike Davis and Enrique Pe alosa Notably the book also includes a range of thinkers who have more recently begun to shape the study of cities through engagements with art architecture computer modelling ethnography public health post colonial theory and more With an introduction that provides a mapping of the current transdisciplinary field and individual entries by those currently involved in cutting edge urban research in the Global North and South this book promises to be an essential text for anyone interested in the study of cities and urban life It will be of use to those in the fields of anthropology economics geography sociology and urban planning Environment & Planning, 2012 The Globalizing City in the Time of Hindutva Renu B. Desai, 2008 Youth and the City in the Global South Karen Tranberg Hansen, 2008 Innovative new research on globalization s impact on urban youth Encyclopedia of Urban Studies: N-Z; index Ray Hutchison, 2010 Covers all aspects of cities their suburbs and other urban areas Includes urban economics urban planning urban architecture urban ecology urban transportation systems urban politics and urban social relations Shanghaiing the Future Shiloh Renee Krupar, 2007 Regional Development Dialogue, 2013 Cultures and Globalization Helmut K Anheier, Christopher Alan Waterman, Yudhishtir Raj Isar, 2010-02-11 Volume 3 of the Cultures Globalization series Creativity and Innovations explores the interactions between globalization and the forms of cultural expression that are their basic resource Bringing together over 25 high profile authors from around the world this volume addresses such questions as What impacts does globalization have on cultural creativity and innovation How is the evolving world map of creativity related to the drivers and patterns of globalization What are the relationships between creative acts clusters genres or institutions and cultural diversity Bounding the Mekong Jim Glassman, 2010-09-16 Transnational economic integration has been described by globalization boosters as a rising tide that will lift all boats an opportunity for all participants to achieve greater prosperity through a combination of political cooperation and capitalist economic competition The Asian Development Bank ADB has championed such rhetoric in promoting the integration of China Southeast Asia s formerly socialist states and Thailand into a regional project called the Greater Mekong Subregion GMS But while the GMS project is in fact hastening regional economic integration Jim Glassman shows that the approach belies the ADB s idealized description of win win outcomes The process of actually existing globalization in the GMS does provide varied opportunities for different actors but it is less a rising tide that lifts all boats than an uneven flood of transnational capitalist development whose outcomes are determined by intense class struggles market competition and regulatory battles Glassman makes the case for adopting a class based approach to analysis of GMS development regionalization and actually existing globalization First he analyzes the interests and actions of various Thai participants in GMS development then the roles of different Chinese actors in GMS integration He next provides two cases illustrating the serious limits of any notion that GMS integration is a relatively egalitarian process Laos participation in GMS development and the role of migrant Burmese workers in the production of the GMS He finds that Burmese migrant workers displace Chinese and Laotian villagers and economically stressed Thai farmers and small businesses are relative losers compared to the powerful business interests that shape GMS integration from locations like Bangkok and Kunming as well as key sites outside the GMS like Beijing Singapore and Tokyo The final chapter blends geographical historical analysis with an assessment of uneven development and actually existing globalization in the GMS Cogent and persuasive Bounding the Mekong will attract attention from the growing number of scholars analyzing globalization neoliberalism regionalization and multiple scales of governance It is suitable for graduate courses in geography political science and sociology as well as courses with a regional focus Istanbul, Open City A. Ipek Türeli, 2008 Thinking about Almost Everything Ash Amin, Michael O'Neill, 2009 Even the most intricate and complex knowledge can enliven public curiosity and spark new thinking The City in Southeast Asia Peter J. Rimmer, Howard W. Dick, 2009-07-31 The City in Southeast Asia explores ways of moving beyond outmoded paradigms of the Third World City It does this by examining urban patterns the global cities of Singapore Hong Kong and Kuala Lumpur the national cities of Bangkok Jakarta and Manila and the second cities of Chiang Mai Surabaya Cebu and Penang Book cover
