OREGON IMPRINTS

1845 1870

By George N. Belknap

OREGON IMPRINTS 1845-1870 describes 1,521 books, pamphlets, and broadsides printed in Oregon through 1870. Included are imprints recorded by Douglas C. McMurtrie in his 1950 bibliography of early Oregon printing, 700 additions to McMurtrie recorded in four supplements by Belknap in the "Oregon Historical Quarterly," and 262 items not previously described. Selectively, notes on recorded titles go beyond physical description and printing information to call attention to content of interest for the social, political, and economic history of Oregon, and to place titles in a context of related events and printed communications. Sometimes even such routine publications as the minutes and proceedings of churches and fraternal organizations gain significance through echoes of Indian troubles and the Civil War.
