Oregon World Around Us:

Becoming ... Jack Mierop, 2013-04 Let us create the lives we were born to live it s our time Belief systems are individual and subjective Without understanding their origins we become stuck in patterns and cycles there is difficulty moving forward Becoming acts as a mirror a guide for those who could use some help figuring out why we find it so difficult to remove ourselves from the negative situations life throws our way Through the exploration of self perception and the factors that influence the way we live and behave we can rise above fixed patterns and transform the self Employing common sense wisdom in an engaging read Mierop maps out ways to avoid the encumbrances with which negative experiences and self doubt often imprison us The Open Road Clayton Holt Ernst, 1920 The End of Nature Bill McKibben, 2014-09-03

Reissued on the tenth anniversary of its publication this classic work on our environmental crisis features a new introduction by the author reviewing both the progress and ground lost in the fight to save the earth This impassioned plea for radical and life renewing change is today still considered a groundbreaking work in environmental studies McKibben s argument that the survival of the globe is dependent on a fundamental philosophical shift in the way we relate to nature is more relevant than ever McKibben writes of our earth s environmental cataclysm addressing such core issues as the greenhouse effect acid rain and the depletion of the ozone layer His new introduction addresses some of the latest environmental issues that have risen during the 1990s The book also includes an invaluable new appendix of facts and figures that surveys the progress of the environmental movement More than simply a handbook for survival or a doomsday catalog of scientific prediction this classic soulful lament on Nature is required reading for nature enthusiasts activists and concerned citizens alike The Eastern
