Organisation Of Management Development Programmes:

Management Development Alan Mumford, Jeffrey Gold, Chartered Institute of Personnel and Development, 2004
Designed for students of Management Development on the CIPD PDS qualification and in business and HR degree programmes this text offers an overview of management development to practitioners. It includes features such as chapter outline, web links, end of chapter discussion questions and summary exercises and searching the web. Management Development International Labour Office, 1998 The publication contains a balanced mix of theoretical concepts and practical guidance about management training and development approaches based on best practice used by companies, public sector organisations, training institutions, business schools and management consultants in various countries around the world. Topics discussed include competence modelling and management practices, learning theory, methods and techniques, effective management development and education, and aspects of the management development cycle such as problem identification, training needs assessment, training programme design, implementation and monitoring. Building In-House Leadership and Management Development Programs H. Kazanas, William J. Rothwell, 1999-11-30 Leadership and Management Development programs have helped companies of every size become high performing organizations. This practical guide sets out a blueprint for establishing, administering and evaluating a planned in house Management Development program and is geared to addressing the training, education and development needs of supervisors, managers, executives and others who exert leadership in organizational settings. It reviews important topics such as how to make a case for an in house program, defining the program, setting policy, establishing goals and objectives, assessing needs, recruiting someone to oversee the program and evaluating results. The material is based on surveys of Management Development professionals, key literature in the area and first hand experience. In this how to do it start up guide, Rothwell and Kazanas provide important background on leadership and management development programs, defining the parameters of a typical organizational program. They review such important topics as the planning and design of a program, formal, informal and special leadership and management development methods and evaluation of organizational efforts. Human resource development specialists and human resources managers, workplace learning and performance practitioners, CEOs, CIOs and supervisors will find this guide comprehensive and valuable. Human Resource (Talent) Development Ronald R.
