Mexican Nature Spaces:

Mexican Nature Roberto de la Maza Ramírez, Fondo Editorial de la Plástica Mexicana, 1996 Mexican Natural Resources Management and Biodiversity Conservation Alfredo Ortega-Rubio, 2018-07-20 This book presents valuable and recent lessons learned regarding the links between natural resources management from a Socio Ecological perspective and the biodiversity conservation in Mexico It address the political and social aspects as well as the biological and ecological factors involved in natural resources management and their impacts on biodiversity conservation It is a useful resource for researchers and professionals around the globe but especially those in Latin American countries which are grappling with the same Bio Cultural heritage conservation issues Space and Place in the Mexican Landscape Fernando

Núñez, Carlos Arvizu, Ramón Abonce, 2007-04-19 Metaphysical conceptions have always influenced how human societies create the built environment Mexico with its rich culture full of symbol and myth its beautiful cities and its evocative ruins is an excellent place to study the interplay of influences on space and place In this volume the authors consider the ideas and views that give the constructed spaces and buildings of Mexico especially of Quer taro their particular ambience They explore the ways the built world helps people find meaning and establish order for their earthly existence by mirroring their metaphysical assumptions and they guide readers through time to see how the transformation of worldviews affects the urban evolution of a Mexican city The authors then construct a metaphysical archeology of space and place in the built landscape of Mexico In the process they identify the intangible spiritual aspects of this land Not only scholars of architecture but also archeologists and anthropologists particularly those interested in Mexican backgrounds and culture will appreciate the authors approach and conclusions Mexican Interiors Am Editores, Various, 2001-09 The possibility of finding an identity in the multiple plays of forms textures and colors gives decoration an outstanding position in the set of values hierarchy the same goes for the search of small object as well as the creation of large scale project Decorating is like talking but in a broader and freer sense one which allows us to live through our senses different dreams and one or two whims This book demonstrates why professional decorators and interior designers in Mexico have reached an international competitive

Innovative Public Participation Practices for Sustainable Urban Regeneration Eugenio Mangi, Weixuan Chen, Tim Heath, Ali Cheshmehzangi, 2024-03-14 This book analyzes the adoption of stakeholders engagement in various fields and scales while providing the readers with an international outlook of the topic In the contemporary processes of urban development regeneration is becoming a relevant way to limit the occupation of new land and to enhance the existing spatial social and ecological dimensions of specific parts of the city It generally entails the engagement of different groups of stakeholders and users at various levels e g institutional and private who carry on their own agendas while conveying a wide range of interests and values to safeguard At the same time despite indications of a significant increase in its implementation under various forms and in multiple contexts in the last twenty years participatory mechanisms have not been without challenges and barriers due to several factors including facilitators poor negotiation and communication practices and consequently misinterpretation of the values at stake made by the parties involved or obstructionism and gridlocks carried on by the different stakeholders The narrative of the collection is structured in four sections The contributions elaborate on innovative participatory patterns how they are might be entangled with the different stages of regeneration projects in what measure they have contributed to the United Nations sustainability goals and the potential matters emerging during the negotiation phases In detail the four sections are 1 Public space regeneration 2 Ecological regeneration 3 Built heritage regeneration 4 Informal settlements regeneration Finally this book is a significant asset to urban policy makers planners practitioners and researchers in the architecture and urban studies domain who aim at deepening public participation practices knowledge by comparing different experiences

Science Fusion in Contemporary Mexican Literature Brian T. Chandler, 2024-03-29 Science Fusion draws on new materialist theory to analyze the relationship between science and literature in contemporary works of fiction poetry and theater from Mexico In this deft new study Brian Chandler examines how a range of contemporary Mexican writers fuse science and literature in their work to rethink what it means to be human in an age of climate change mass extinctions interpersonal violence femicide and social injustice The authors under consideration here including Alberto Blanco Jorge Volpi Ignacio Padilla Sabina Berman Maricela Guerrero and Elisa D az Castelo challenge traditional divisions that separate human from nonhuman subject from object culture from nature Using science and literature to engage topics in biopolitics historiography metaphysics ethics and ecological crisis in the age of the Anthropocene works of science fusion offer fresh perspectives to address present day sociocultural and environmental issues
