discography is another magnificent achievement for which the jazz world owes Michel Ruppli and Greenwood Press an enormous debt of gratitude. The information contained in it should now be available to writers, researchers and collectors.

Jazztimes Through his Jazz at the Philharmonic concerts and recordings and the Verve Clef recordings of the 1940s and 1950s, Norman Granz had a significant impact in bringing jazz before a wide public and helping to sustain the careers of some of the most famous musical artists of the time. The first volume of the Clef Verve discography provides comprehensive listings of recordings made or issued under the Clef Verve and subsidiary labels between 1944 and 1961 when Granz owned both labels and conducted recording sessions. It features many classic performances by Louis Armstrong, Count Basie, Duke Ellington, Billie Holiday and many other great names in jazz. Volume II, which is devoted to sessions made on the Verve label following its purchase by MGM in 1961 until the last sessions in 1973, includes Jazz, Bossa Nova, folk music and rock and pop groups such as Stan Getz, Wes Montgomery and the Mothers of Invention.

Stan Getz Nicholas Churchill, 2004-12-29. Some may only know the jazz legend Stan Getz, tenor saxophonist, for his bossa nova hits Desafinado and The Girl from Ipanema. However, Getz, born in 1927, began to play professionally at age 15 and his rich musical career lasted until shortly before his death on June 6, 1991. He played in a wide variety of musical settings such as big band, orchestral quartet and duo. The incredible beauty of his sound sparked the late jazz great John Coltrane to say, "We would all play like Stan Getz if we could." When Getz died, jazz trumpeter Dizzy Gillespie said, "He was sheer genius. And there's one thing about this man: he was the most melodic player on the jazz scene." This bibliography, the first of its kind, contains a total of 2,576 bibliographic citations, with 2,292 of them annotated. It includes references to periodical literature, articles from news wire services, books, dissertations, films, videos, television programs, radio broadcasts and Web sites. The citations are primarily from English language sources. Materials in English and French, as well as a handful of items from other languages, are annotated. This work includes a preface that contains the scope of the work, a user's guide and a list of more than 340 periodicals cited. The main body of the work is divided into the following sections: album reviews, performance reviews, discographies and discographical information, transcriptions, biographical and critical works, filmography and appendix. Album reviews are provided for 240 albums, along with the discographical details for each of these albums. The appendix contains unannotated citations to materials in Danish, Dutch, German, Italian, Norwegian, Spanish and Swedish.

The Blues Encyclopedia Edward Komara, Peter Lee, 2004-07-01. The Blues Encyclopedia is the first full-length authoritative encyclopedia on the blues as a musical form. While other books have collected biographies of blues performers, none have taken a scholarly approach. A to Z in format, this encyclopedia covers not only the performers but also musical styles, regions, record labels and cultural aspects of the blues, including race and gender issues. Special attention is paid to discographies and bibliographies.
