James R Jordan Jr and Deloris Jordan were Michael's older siblings MJ also had a younger sister named Roslyn We can see the origins of MJ's competitive nature if we study his childhood namely his early experiences with racism and competitions with his brothers At the time you had racism all over North Carolina all over the United States and it was a lot of it around here said Jordan So as a kid it was like this is where I don't want to be I want to excel outside of this So my motivation was to be something outside of Wilmington MJ grew up wanting to use athletics as a vehicle to get to a better life A life where he could journey far away from Wilmington and be able to distance himself from the racism he was experiencing Question to Ponder How do you think experiencing racism made MJ feel and impacted his life How would you deal with racism in your own life The other source of Jordan's competitiveness came from his older brother Larry Growing up Larry was a better basketball player than Michael and was able to use his advantages in strength and size to best his younger sibling Larry was also the most competitive of all his siblings When you come to blows with someone you absolutely love that's igniting every fire within you And I always felt like I was fighting Larry for my father's attention When you're going through it it's traumatic because I want that I want that approval I want that type of confidence So my determination got even greater to be as good if not better than my brother Michael said The quote shows a window into some of the pain that MJ grew up with His life wasn't all flowers and daisies He experienced racism fought his siblings for his father's attention and went through traumatic events Yet what made MJ special was his ability to use painful events to fuel him and help him strive for a better life He could have decided to stay home and refuse to play when his father favored his brother Larry or when his community favored those with a different skin color Instead Michael got up worked hard and achieved his dreams Question to Ponder Do you think it's okay to fight with your siblings How can two siblings have a healthy rivalry while still loving each other Scroll up and Buy Now to Read the Rest
