The same goes for the search of small object as well as the creation of large scale project. Authors Karen Witynski and Joe P Carr navigated coastal villages and old colonial mining towns by bus and burro bumping down narrow cobblestone streets in search of simple and utilitarian elements like country tables, workbenches, storage trunks, corral gates and heavy old doors. Intrigued by the diversity they encountered the authors documented the wide variety in style, design and shape of each object they encountered. Weathered coffee mortars, milking stools shaped like animals and sculptured sugar molds reflect a rich local history as well as the ingenuity of the hands that crafted them. Mexican Country Style is the result of those fascinating journeys and boundless discoveries a celebration of a rugged romantic beauty and magical antiquity that continues to make its way into the contemporary interiors, gardens and commercial settings across the country. Award winning authors Karen Witynski and Joe P Carr have been at the forefront of the Mexican design movement for over twenty five years as interior designers and antiques dealers. Their Mexican design book series includes six titles Mexican Country Style, The New Hacienda, Casa Adobe, Adobe Details, Casa Yucatán and Mexican Details. Based in Austin, Texas, Carr and Witynski are the owners of Texture Antiques an interior design firm and gallery specializing in hacienda style Mexican colonial furniture and architectural elements.
