The Unseen War Kisha Ninham, 2011-07-26
The Unseen War is the story of people dealing with life issues not knowing there is a war going on around them between the Shadows and Lights
The Lights are fighting to protect and preserve humankind for the good of the Sun
While lurking in the darkness the Shadows who have a short time to exist are trying to destroy the humans and their Lights
Much like other families there is a family caught in the middle of this fight between good and evil
They are going to have to pull together to get through these trying times
When faced with adversity will they fall to the Shadows calling or will the goodness of the Light shine through      The Shadow of the Empress Larry Wolff, 2023-05-02
A beguiling exploration of the last Habsburg monarchs grip on Europe's historical and cultural imagination
In 1919 the last Habsburg rulers Emperor Karl and Empress Zita left Austria going into exile
That same year the fairy tale opera Die Frau ohne Schatten The Woman Without a Shadow featuring a mythological emperor and empress premiered at the Vienna Opera
Viennese poet Hugo von Hofmannsthal and German composer Richard Strauss created Die Frau ohne Schatten through the bitter years of World War I imagining it would triumphantly appear after the victory of the German and Habsburg empires
Instead the premiere came in the aftermath of catastrophic defeat
The Shadow of the Empress Fairy Tale Opera and the End of the Habsburg Monarchy explores how the changing circumstances of politics and society transformed their opera and its cultural meanings before during and after the First World War
Strauss and Hofmannsthal turned emperors and empresses into fantastic fairy tale characters meanwhile following the collapse of the Habsburg monarchy after the war their real life counterparts removed from political life in Europe began to be regarded as anachronistic semi mythological figures Reflecting on the seismic cultural shifts that rocked post imperial Europe Larry Wolff follows the story of Karl and Zita after the loss of their thrones Karl died in 1922 but Zita lived through the rise of Nazism World War II and the Cold War By her death in 1989 she had herself become a fairy tale figure a totem of imperial nostalgia Wolff weaves together the story of the opera s composition and performance the end of the Habsburg monarchy and his own family s life in and exile from Central Europe providing a rich new understanding of Europe s cataclysmic twentieth century and our contemporary relationship to it     The Shadow of Her Life Charles Garvice,1899     The Man in the Shadow Richard Washburn Child,1911     Cartoons Magazine ,1916     The Ragged Messenger William Babington Maxwell,1915 Rev John Morton who is determined to follow as closely as possible the teachings of Jesus inherits a considerable fortune when his uncle dies Shortly thereafter he succumbs to the wiles of Mary Carlson and marries her To Mary s dismay John uses his money for charitable work When John learns that not only has Mary been unfaithful to him but she was also his uncle s mistress and became Mrs Morton in order to share the inheritance she believed to be rightfully hers he sends her away with his secretary Years later John regrets his harshness and he is reunited with Mary when she appears at a home for fallen women which he is dedicating     The Shadow of the Scarlet Sin Marion Curtis,1910     Caliban in Exile Margaret P. Joseph,1992-05-27 The Caliban Prospero encounter in Shakespeare s The Tempest has evolved as a metaphor for the colonial experience The present study utilizes the Caliban symbol in examining the influence of colonialism in Caribbean literature focusing on the works of three major writers from the Caribbean islands Jean Rhys of British descent from Dominica George Lamming of African origin from Barbados and Sam Selvon of mixed Indian and Scottish heritage from Trinidad The works chosen are set in England where the writers and their characters experience a double displacement the alienation of the exiled in the country that once colonized their own islands They are outsiders unwelcome in Prospero s home country The novels dramatize the theme of physical and psychological exile Rhys s characters need mirrors in which they search for an assurance of identity Lamming s are torn by the conflict inherent in the tragic sense of life and Selvon s ironic language expresses the deepest sense of exile exile from one s own self Other Caribbean writers are included in the analysis and the volume concludes by examining contemporary writers for whom Caliban s role in literature appears to be changing Novelists like Earl Lovelace and Jamaica Kincaid demonstrate that it is possible to be an outsider in one s own country and that issues of class can be as corrosive as issues of race The focus has moved beyond physical exile but the spirit and strength of Caliban continue to pervade the new literature In giving expression to their anguish both the earlier and new Caribbean writers have created highly interesting and successful fiction This well crafted thematic study of Caribbean literature will be of great value to students teachers scholars and readers of Third World post colonial and multicultural literature     In the shadow of guilt, by M.C. and R.
