Palacios Martínez, 2003 Romantic Presences in the Twentieth Century Mark Sandy, 2016-04-08 Concerned with the intermingled thematic and formal preoccupations of Romantic thought and literary practice in works by twentieth-century British, Irish, and American artists, this collection examines the complicated legacy of Romanticism in twentieth century novels poetry and film Even as key twentieth century cultural movements have tried to subvert or debunk Romantic narratives of redemptive nature individualism perfectibility and the transcendence of art the forms and modes of feeling associated with the Romantic period continue to exert a signal influence on the modern moment both as a source of tension and as creative stimulus As the essays here show the exact meaning of the Romantic bequest may be bitterly contested but it has been difficult to leave behind The contributors take up a wide range of authors including Virginia Woolf F Scott Fitzgerald W H Auden Doris Lessing Seamus Heaney Hart Crane William Faulkner Don DeLillo and Jonathan Franzen What emerges from this lively volume is a fuller picture of the persistence and variety of the Romantic period s influence on the twentieth century

Caring for Community Marijke Denger,2018-12-12 Caring for Community Towards a New Ethics of Responsibility in Contemporary Postcolonial Novels focuses on four highly acclaimed publications in order to argue for a new understanding of community and its ethical framework in recent literary texts Traditionally community has been understood to function on the basis of individuals readiness to establish relationships of reciprocal responsibility This book however argues that community and non reciprocity need not be mutually exclusive categories Examining works by leading contemporary postcolonial authors and reading them against Judith Butler s post 9 11 concept of global political community the book explores how concrete acts of responsibility can be carried out in recognition of various others even and precisely when those others cannot be expected to respond The literary analyses draw on a rich theoretical framework that includes approaches to care hospitality and the ethical encounter between self and other Overall this book establishes that the novels protagonists by investing in an ethics of responsibility that does not require reciprocity acquire the agency to envisage new forms of community By reflecting on the nature and effect of this agency and its representation in contemporary literary texts the book also considers the role of postcolonial studies in addressing highly topical questions regarding our co existence with others
