Other Germanies Karen Jankowsky, Carla Love, 1997-10-16 Explores notions of personal and cultural identity and offers an introduction to the work of women in literature film dance and visual art in Germany Body and Narrative in Contemporary Literatures in German Lyn Marven, 2005-05-26 This book examines the relationship between representations of the body and narrative strategies in the work of three contemporary women writers from the former Eastern Bloc countries Herta and Paul Amirson an ethnic German from Romania Libuše Monoková who emigrated from Czechoslovakia to West Germany and chose to write in German and Kerstin Hensel from the GDR Marven shows how the content and form of their works are interlinked and how these challenge the hegemonic discourses within repressive socialist regimes The introduction contextualizes the writers socially culturally and historically and outlines the theoretical basis of the approach drawing on psychoanalysis performativity theory and feminist critical theory Chapters on the individual authors offer new interpretations of the writers works focusing on the structures of trauma in Herta's work hysteria in Monoková's and the grotesque in Hensel's The images of the body analysed in the first half of each chapter show the effects of violence challenge the understanding of the body as natural or authentic and raise questions about identity and gender The analysis in the second half of each chapter covers a range of formal features from the fantastic and collage through parody and intertextuality to irony plot and story telling The book also traces developments in the work of all three authors taking account of the historical changes in the Eastern Bloc countries since 1989 Body and Narrative in Contemporary Literatures in German will be valuable for anyone researching contemporary German literatures as well as those interested in feminist theory minority literatures and trauma

The Guest Worker Question in Postwar Germany Rita Chin, 2007-03-05 This book provides the first English language history of the postwar labor migration to West Germany Drawing on government bulletins statements by political leaders parliamentary arguments industry newsletters social welfare studies press coverage and the cultural production of immigrant artists and intellectuals Rita Chin offers an account of West German public debate about guest workers She traces the historical and ideological shifts around the meanings of the labor migration moving from the concept of guest workers as a temporary labor supplement in the 1950s and 1960s to early ideas about multiculturalism by the end of the 1980s She argues that the efforts to come to terms with the permanent residence of guest workers especially Muslim Turks forced a major rethinking of German identity culture and nation What began as a policy initiative to fuel the economic miracle ultimately became a much broader discussion about the parameters of a specifically German brand of multiculturalism

Identity, Dissatisfaction and Political Activity - The Experience of East German Women Since Unification Debbie Wagener, 2011-03-15 Doctoral Thesis Dissertation from the year 2002 in the subject Sociology Political Sociology Majorities Minorities grade bestanden University of Birmingham language English abstract Diese Arbeit ist eine Forschungsarbeit über die Wirkungen der Integration ostdeutscher Frauen im wiedervereinigten Deutschland Sie untersucht die Unterschiede der Erfahrungen von ostdeutschen und westdeutschen Frauen und ob dies zu Unterschieden der feministischen Werte und Erwartungen geführt hat Sie untersucht auch inwieweit ostdeutsche Frauen eine Änderung in ihrer gesellschaftlichen Position beobachtet haben und insbesondere inwieweit sie sich zum Nachteil ausgewirkt hat Sie stellt die Hypothese auf da die potentielle Unzufriedenheit mit dem neuen Status dazu führen könnte da ostdeutsche Frauen eine bedeutende Rolle in der Entwicklung der Frauenpolitik insbesondere der Beschäftigungspolitik einnehmen werden Die Feldstudie konzentriert sich von daher sowohl auf Anzeichen der Unzufriedenheit unter ostdeutschen Frauen als auch die politischen Ziele Aktivitäten und der Einflussbereich von Frauengruppen

Contemporary German Prose in Britain and France (1980-1999) Wiebke Sievers, 2007 This case study of the translation of contemporary German literature in Britain and France seeks to address the philosophical and anthropological problem of otherness and to discover its significance for translation theory This work should appeal to scholars interested in German British and French literature translation theory philosophy and sociology central component of the translation process Moreover via disciplines such as philosophy and anthropology otherness in the last two decades has entered Western theories and studies of translation and become an important analytical and normative category in the field of translation studies Nevertheless there is an apparent lack of research considering the concept itself as well as its history and current use in the field and its relevance for the practice of translation the translation theories currently known as foreignizing and shows that some of these draw on the same nationalist agenda that they try to transcend Moreover the ensuing case study proves that current translation practice is still governed by a nationalist assurance of linguistic and cultural differences This book therefore concludes by calling for a change of perspective in the theoretical and practical approaches to translation Translation should no longer be regarded as a means of delimiting our selves from a national other but as a way to uncover the otherness underlying these alleged selves
