Otherhood Poems:

Otherhood Reginald Shepherd, 2003 The fourth collection from this much praised poet combines lyricism with experimentation creating a unique synthesis of passion and linguistic exploration Otherhood Reginald Shepherd, 2014-08-07 Written in the spaces between otherness and brotherhood Otherhood combines traditional lyricism with experimentalism passionate engagement with cold eyed investigation and personal details with a depersonalized distance to create a new poetic synthesis Encyclopedia of Motherhood Andrea O'Reilly, 2010-04-06 In the last decade the topic of motherhood has emerged as a distinct and established field of scholarly inquiry A cursory review of motherhood research reveals that hundreds of scholarly articles have been published on almost every motherhood theme imaginable The Encyclopedia of Motherhood is a collection of approximately 700 articles in a three volume A to Z set exploring major topics related to motherhood from geographical historical and cultural entries to anthropological and psychological contributions In human society few institutions are as important as motherhood and this unique encyclopedia captures the interdisciplinary foundation of the subject in one convenient reference The Encyclopedia is a comprehensive resource designed to provide an understanding of the complexities of motherhood for academic and public libraries and is written by academics and institutional experts in the social and behavioural sciences The Lyric Theory Reader Virginia Walker Jackson, Yopie Prins, 2014-02 Reading lyric poetry over the past century The Lyric Theory Reader collects major essays on the modern idea of lyric made available here for the first time in one place Representing a wide range of perspectives in Anglo American literary criticism from the twentieth and twenty first centuries the collection as a whole documents the diversity and energy of ongoing critical conversations about lyric poetry Virginia Jackson and Yopie Prins frame these conversations with a general introduction bibliographies for further reading and introductions to each of the anthology's ten sections genre theory historical models of lyric New Criticism structuralist and post structuralist reading Frankfurt School approaches phenomenologies of lyric reading avant garde anti lyricism lyric and sexual difference and comparative lyric Designed for students teachers scholars poets and readers with a general interest in poetics this book presents an intellectual history of the theory of lyric reading that has circulated both within and beyond the classroom wherever poetry is taught read discussed and debated today Out of the Cradle Endlessly Rocking Nephie Christodoulides, 2021-11-15 Out of the Cradle Endlessly Rocking delves deeply into the notion of motherhood in Sylvia Plath's work in order to redeem Plath from the one dimensional role assigned to her of the suicidal father obsessed poet Written from the theoretical perspective of Julia Kristeva's theory of subject formation the book focuses on Plath's baby poems in which mother figures are seen as subjects in process oscillating between authentication and non authentication in motherhood Furthermore since the mother is always a daughter part of the discussion centers on Plath's daughterhood poetry in which daughter figures are engaged in an endless struggle to release themselves from a suffocating maternal hold and achieve their own linguistic individuation Finally Plath's works for children The Bed Book The It Doesn't Matter Suit Mrs Cherry's Kitchen as well as her fairy tale poems largely ignored until now are read as manifestations of the self's regressive journey to once below a time to grasp an elusive pre-symbolic organization and take signification back to infancy The book makes extensive use of Plath's drafts mainly of the Ariel poems her recycled materials annotated books from her personal library published and unpublished material from The Lilly Library Archive The Mortimer Rare Book Room and The Ted Hughes Archive in Emory

Maternal Bodies Nora Doyle, 2018-03-19 In the second half of the eighteenth century motherhood came to be viewed as women's most important social role and the figure of the good mother was celebrated as a moral force in American society Nora Doyle shows that depictions of motherhood in American culture began to define the ideal mother by her emotional and spiritual roles rather than by her physical work as a mother As a result of this new vision lower class women and non-white women came to be excluded from the identity of the good mother because American culture defined them in terms of their physical labor However Doyle also shows that childbearing women contradicted the ideal of the disembodied mother in their personal accounts and instead perceived motherhood as fundamentally defined by the work of their bodies Enslaved women were keenly aware that their reproductive bodies carried a literal price while middle class and elite white women dwelled on the physical sensations of childbearing and childrearing Thus motherhood in this period was marked by tension between the lived experience of the maternal body and the increasingly ethereal vision of the ideal mother that permeated American print culture
