

Poem About God's Creation

By Maya Anthony

In the quiet of dawn's first light,
Sky blushes at the touch of sun,
Soft whispers of a world reborn,
In hues of hope, the day's begun.

Each ray a verse from heaven sent,
Painting the earth in golden hues,
God's canvas, vast and infinite,
In morning's glow, life's essence renews.

With every sunrise, a silent prayer,
Of gratitude for day's embrace,
In dawn's embrace, God's tender care,
Reflects in every sunlit space.

Our Creation Of Poetry:

An Illustrated History of French Literature Charles Marc Des Granges, 1921 History of Latin Christianity Henry Hart Milman, 1887 History of the Literary Cultures of East-Central Europe: Types and stereotypes Marcel Cornis-Pope, John Neubauer, 2004

Types and stereotypes is the fourth and last volume of a path breaking multinational literary history that incorporates innovative features relevant to the writing of literary history in general. Instead of offering a traditional chronological narrative of the period 1800-1989, the History of the Literary Cultures of East Central Europe approaches the region's literatures from five complementary angles: focusing on literature's participation in and reaction to key political events; literary periods and genres; the literatures of cities and sub-regions; literary institutions and figures of representation. The main objective of the project is to challenge the self-enclosure of national literatures in traditional literary histories, to contextualize them in a regional perspective, and to recover individual works, writers, and minority literatures that national histories have marginalized or ignored. Types and stereotypes brings together articles that rethink the figures of National Poets, figurations of the Family, Women, Outlaws, and Others, as well as figures of Trauma and Mediation. As in the previous three volumes, the historical and imaginary figures discussed here constantly change and readjust to new political and social conditions. An Epilogue complements the basic history, focusing on the contradictory transformations of East Central European literary cultures after 1989. This volume will be of interest to the region's literary historians, to students and teachers of comparative literature, to cultural historians, and to the general public interested in exploring the literatures of a rich and resourceful cultural region.
