The Island Setting and Shipwreck Experience in Three Dystopian Novels* M. Klaiber,2023-04-12 Master s Thesis from the year 2021 in the subject English Language and Literature Studies Literature grade 1 0 Johannes Gutenberg University Mainz language English abstract This thesis explores three dystopian novels that depict different forms of island societies The Island of Doctor Moreau by H G Wells 1896 Lord of the Flies by William Golding 1954 and The Wall by John Lanchester 2019 The author splits his text into two parts a theoretical framework and an analysis The theoretical framework is again subdivided The first section lays the foundation for the analysis of dystopian island settings and explains and discusses important concepts and key terms regarding dystopia and islands Subsequently the author provides an overview of functions that islands can fulfill for a society The second section of the theoretical framework introduces and explains the tools necessary for the analysis of control mechanisms within societies These tools make it possible to uncover how the respective fictional society organises and controls itself For the analysis of control mechanisms and power structures in these societies this thesis draws on various concepts of power proposed by Michel Foucault In the analysis which constitutes the second main part of this thesis the author examines each novel separately in chronological order By systematically applying the guiding questions mentioned in the methodology a detailed analysis of the insular societies depicted in the three novels is conducted

Science Fiction for Young Readers Charles William Sullivan,1993-03-24 In this collection of essays authorities on a wide range of topics related to science fiction discuss themes and works of special interest to young readers The first section includes chapters on the origins of science fiction as a genre for young people and contains essays on Victor Appleton s Tom Swift series and the contributions of Isaac Asimov Robert A Heinlein and Madeleine L Engle The second section looks beyond the origins of science fiction to particular works and authors The chapters in this section approach authors and their works from particular thematic perspectives and thus show how particular themes bind together and define the body of an author's writings. The third section on science fiction as a vehicle for ideas looks beyond the literary features of the genre. Chapters in this section discuss science fiction as a means for conveying religious, philosophical, and social messages.     Selected Proceedings of the 1978 Science Fiction Research Association National Conference Science Fiction Research Association.
