Theology and the University in

Nineteenth-Century Germany Zachary Purvis, 2017-04-13 Theology and the University in Nineteenth Century Germany

examines the dual transformation of institutions and ideas that led to the emergence of theology as science the paradigmatic project of modern theology associated with Friedrich Schleiermacher Beginning with earlier educational reforms across central Europe and especially following the upheavals of the Napoleonic period an impressive list of provocateurs iconoclasts and guardians of the old faith all confronted the nature of the university the organization of knowledge and the unity of theology s various parts quandaries which together bore the collective name of theological encyclopedia Schleiermacher s remarkably influential programme pioneered the structure and content of the theological curriculum and laid the groundwork for theology s historicization Zachary Purvis offers a comprehensive investigation of Schleiermacher s programme through the era s two predominant schools speculative theology and mediating theology Purvis highlights that the endeavour ultimately collapsed in the context of Wilhelmine Germany and the Weimar Republic beset by the rise of religious studies radical disciplinary specialization a crisis of historicism and the attacks of dialectical theology In short the project represented university theology par excellence Engaging in detail with these developments Purvis weaves the story of modern university theology into the broader tapestry of German and European intellectual culture with periodic comparisons to other national contexts In doing so he Purvis presents a substantially new way to understand the relationship between theology and the university both in nineteenth century Germany and indeed beyond Protestant Theology and the Making of the Modern German University Thomas Albert Howard, 2006-02-23 Publisher description Cyclopaedia of Biblical, Theological and Ecclesiastical Literature John McClintock, James Strong, 1891 Methodus Studii Theologici Johanne Gerardo, 2014-03-29 This Is A New Release Of The Original 1620 Edition Theologia Edward Farley, 2001-01-26

Church and School in Early Modern Protestantism Jordan Ballor, David Sytsma, Jason Zuidema, 2013-08-08 A great deal of scholarship has too often juxtaposed scholasticism and piety resulting in misunderstandings of the relationship between Protestant churches of the early modern era and the theology taught in their schools But more recent scholarship especially conducted by Richard A Muller over the last number of decades has remapped the lines of continuity and discontinuity in the relation of church and school This research has produced a more methodologically nuanced and historically accurate representation of church and school in early modern Protestantism Written by leading scholars of early modern Protestant theology and history and based on research using the most relevant original sources this collection seeks to broaden our understanding of how and why clergy were educated to serve the church Contributors include Yuzo Adhinarta Willem van Asselt Irena Backus Jordan J Ballor J Mark Beach Andreas Beck Joel R Beeke Lyle D Bierma Raymond A Blacketer James E

Beyond Fragmentation Bernhard Ott, 2011-06-17 Beyond Fragmentation is an inquiry into the development of mission studies in evangelical theological education in Germany and German speaking Switzerland between 1960 1995 This is carried out by a detailed examination of the paradigm shifts which have taken place in recent years in both the theology of mission and the understanding of theological education David Bosch s proposal of an emerging ecumenical mission paradigm is examined with reference to the schools in membership with the Konferenz Bibeltreuer Ausbildungsstätten KBA The KBA schools have been greatly influenced by the work of Peter Beyerhaus and the Frankfurt Declaration 1970 and as such defend a conservative theological position and resist the challenge of Bosch s mission paradigm shift the key issue being that of hermeneutics Ott further explores the emerging new paradigm of theological education in both the Western and Two Thirds World contexts While the evangelical Bible school movement has historically embodied many of the features of this new paradigm they nevertheless have jeopardized these by their pursuit of academic accreditation Ott believes that theological conservatism has caused the KBA schools to resist changes in the areas of contextual and inductive learning Finally Ott studies the schools pattern of change and change resistance through combining the insights of Thomas Kuhn Hans Kung and Alasdair MacIntyre to hermeneutical and epistemological issues
