nation in the Mexican province of Texas After winning independence in 1836 Texas became an independent republic Texas formally asked to be annexed by the United States in 1845 This annexation angered the Mexican government which still considered Texas to be part of its territory Mexico had previously warned that the annexation of Texas would cause Mexico to declare war on the United States When the annexation bill was passed by Congress it included an additional provocation to Mexico it claimed that the southern border of Texas was the Rio Grande The actual territory controlled by the Republic of Texas did not extend nearly to the Rio Grande and this border would represent a further loss of territory to the United States When a Mexican patrol attacked American cavalry in the disputed area north of the Rio Grande President Polk went to Congress for a declaration of war The declaration passed on May 13 1846 The war against Mexico was unpopular with the opposition Whig party especially in the North Opponents of the war denounced it as a war of aggression and denied that there had been a valid reason for war Small American military units were quickly able to occupy key points in California including San Francisco and Los Angeles Although California was sparsely populated some Mexican inhabitants formed an effective resistance which was eventually put down in 1847 by American reinforcements Subsequently a larger American army was sent to invade central Mexico and managed to capture the Mexican capital Mexico City on September 13 1847 Although a large Mexican army was still fighting American forces in northeast Mexico and Texas news of the capital falling caused it to retreat to try to retake the capital After the defeat of the last Mexican army major hostilities ended The Treaty of Guadalupe Hidalgo ended the Mexican American War in February 1848 Mexico agreed to sell over half its territory for less than half of the money the United States had offered only two years earlier As the Army occupied most of Mexico's major cities Mexico had no choice but to accept the American terms The new territory acquired in the treaty included all or part of the present day states of California Nevada New Mexico Arizona Texas Colorado Utah and Wyoming The Mexican American War The History of the Controversial War that Resulted in the Annexation of the Southwest and California looks at the controversial war Along with pictures of important people places and events you will learn about the Mexican American War like never before in no time at all

The Mexican-American War R. Conrad Stein,2011-04-28 Years ago American schools taught children that their country began when the Pilgrims established a settlement at Plymouth Rock in 1620 The Pilgrims teachers said were the first people other than Indians to build a permanent colony on what became United States soil That information was incorrect Men and women from what is now Mexico built towns and villages in the present day American state of New Mexico before the Pilgrims arrived The city of Santa Fe New Mexico was founded by Mexicans in 1608 twelve years earlier than Plymouth Rock In the early 1800s all of the American southwest from Texas to California belonged to Mexico This vast region above the Rio Grande was undeveloped and underpopulated Mexicans called the area the Northern Frontier The United States the Northern Frontier's nearest neighbor was an ever expanding country driven by a spirit called Manifest Destiny According to the principals of Manifest Destiny the United States borders were fated to sweep west and reach the Pacific Ocean But blocking the westward expansion was Mexico's Northern Frontier In 1846 the United States and Mexico went to war over the issue of land The Mexican American War was fought from 1846 to 1848 Today the war is somewhat over looked in American history books because the great Civil War broke out a dozen years later and dominated subsequent events However the war is studied in Mexican classrooms where it is generally called the American Invasion of Mexico Because of the war Mexico lost its entire Northern Frontier to the United States For the Americans Manifest Destiny was complete as their nation now spread from sea to shining sea The Mexicans suffered a humiliating defeat and saw about half their land swallowed up by their aggressive northern neighbors To a certain extent bitterness over the Mexican American War lingers in Mexico even today Book jacket The Legacy of the Mexican and Spanish-American Wars Gary D. Keller,Cordelia Candelaria,2000
