Mexican Mural:

Mexican Murals in Times of Crisis Bruce Campbell,2003-02 Blending ethnography political science and sociology with art history Campbell traces the emergence of modern Mexican mural art as a composite of aesthetic discursive and performative elements through which collective interests and identities are shaped He focuses on mural activists engaged combatively with the state in barrios unions and street protests to show that mural arts that are neither connected to the elite art world nor supported by the government have made significant contributions to Mexican culture

The Casa del Deán Penny C. Morrill,2023-09-15 The Casa del De n in Puebla Mexico is one of few surviving sixteenth century residences in the Americas Built in 1580 by Tomás de la Plaza the Dean of the Cathedral the house was decorated with at least three magnificent murals two of which survive Their rediscovery in the 1950s and restoration in 2010 revealed works of art that rival European masterpieces of the early Renaissance while incorporating indigenous elements that identify them with Amerindian visual traditions Extensively illustrated with new color photographs of the murals The Casa del Deán presents a thorough iconographic analysis of the paintings and an enlightening discussion of the relationship between Tomás de la Plaza and the indigenous artists whom he commissioned Penny Morrill skillfully traces how native painters trained by the Franciscans used images from Classical mythology found in Flemish and Italian prints and illustrated books from France as well as animal images and glyptic traditions with pre Columbian origins to create murals that are reflective of Don Tomás's erudition and his role in evangelizing among the Amerindians She demonstrates how the importance given to rhetoric by both the Spaniards and the Nahuas became a bridge of communication between these two distinct and highly evolved cultures This pioneering study of the Casa del Deán mural cycle adds an important new chapter to the study of colonial Latin American art as it increases our understanding of the process by which imagery in the New World took on Christian meaning

Muralism Without Walls Anna Indych-López,2009 Examines the introduction of Mexican muralism to the United States in the 1930s and the challenges faced by the artists their medium and the political overtones of their work in a new society Mexican Muralists Desmond Rochfort,1994 The Mexican Mural movement lasted from the 1920s until the early 1970s and represented one of the most powerful and significant achievements for public art this century This book follows the careers of the three most prominent artists of the movement los tres Grandes José Clemente Orozco Diego Rivera and David Alfaro Siqueiros Dr Rochfort traces their lives from childhood in a rural feudal society through the bloody years of the revolution and the first commissions from the new state and on to the years of their artistic maturity and their greatest works The first study to offer comprehensive color illustrations of all the major murals both those sited in Mexico and in the United States where all three artists worked in the 1930s it also looks at the paintings in the context of their cultural background and assesses the artists achievements within the political framework of their country The story is an extraordinary and moving one telling of the forging of a national identity through an unprecedented marriage between politics and art Dr Rochfort has written a lively accessible text which presents a complex period of art history clearly and well while the illustrations ensure that the sheer scale of the works is never forgotten Contemporary Mexican Painting in a Time of Change Shifra M.
