My Family, My Self Latinas

Unidas En Servicio Comunidades,2014-06-03 A culturally sensitive guide specific to the emotional health of Latinos with a focus on family in navigating the psychological social and cultural challenges faced after immigrating to America Latinos immigrating into the United States bring with them their rich unique cultural values and practices with one constant being the celebration of and reliance on family Family members find strength and support in the well defined roles and expectations passed down over many generations This can provide a safe haven for individuals finding their way in the fast paced competitive American culture where in addition to the language barriers different attitudes toward personal issues like dating and relationships alcohol and drug use parenting and the role of elders can cause conflict and confusion and threaten the stability of family life For over thirty years the professionals at CLUES have worked with Latinos and their families to provide support and guidance in navigating the many psychological social and cultural challenges they face in adapting to their new environment In this book experts from different disciplines across this nationally recognized organization share their practical wisdom a combination of cultural sensitivity and knowledge and current behavioral health expertise to produce a friendly accessible guide to emotional health for Latinos With a focus on family throughout including success stories from a variety of Latino families readers will find useful and inspiring information on Understanding the importance of emotions intimacy and communication in personal relationships Finding strength in cultural and family traditions as roles and expectations change Key stages of life issues such as parenting gender identity and aging Avoiding alcohol and drug abuse and getting help should this become a problem Contributing to family and society through work and career education and developing financial stability The importance of spirituality and moral values in maintaining a sense of personal and family well being Selected key passages are bi lingual Benn's Media ,2006 Rethinking Testimonial Cinema in

Postdictatorship Argentina Verónica Garibotto,2019-01-07 For roughly two decades after the collapse of the military regime in 1983 testimonial narrative was viewed and received as a privileged genre in Argentina Today however academics and public intellectuals are experiencing memory fatigue a backlash against the concepts of memory and trauma just as memory and testimonial films have reached the center of Argentinian public discourse In Rethinking Testimonial Cinema in Postdictatorship Argentina Ver nica Garibotto looks at the causes for this reticence and argues that rather than discarding memory texts for their repetitive excess it is necessary to acknowledge them and their exhaustion as discourses of the present By critically examining how trauma theory and subaltern studies have previously been applied to testimonial cinema Garibotto rereads Argentinian films produced since 1983 and calls for an alternate interpretive framework at the intersection of semiotics theories of affect scholarship on hegemony and the ideological uses of documentary and fiction She argues that recurrent concepts such as trauma mourning memory and subalternity miss how testimonial films have changed over time shifting from subaltern narratives to official hegemonic and iconic accounts Her work highlights the urgent need to continue to study these types of narratives particularly at a time when military dictatorships have become entrenched in Latin America and memory narratives proliferate worldwide Although Argentina is Garibotto s focus her theory can be adapted to other contexts in which narratives about recent political conflicts have shifted from alternative versions of history to official hegemonic accounts such as in Spanish Chilean Uruguayan Brazilian South African and Holocaust testimonies Garibotto s study of testimonial cinema moves us to pursue a broader ideological analysis of the links between film and historical representation Books to Help Children Cope with Separation and Loss Joanne E.
