Michael Rakowitz Anthony Downey, 2020-03-24 An artist charts the historical context and aftermath of a concert by Leonard Cohen at the Ramallah Cultural Palace in Palestine that never happened Michael Rakowitz's project I'm good at love I'm good at hate it's in between I freeze 2009 ongoing charts the historical context and aftermath of a concert that never happened In 2009 Leonard Cohen was scheduled to perform in Israel Because of increasing pressure from pro Palestinian voices to dissuade Cohen from performing in Israel a twin event in Palestine was organized Amid protests and claims that the latter concert was a token show of solidarity and a hollow attempt to appease demonstrators the concert was boycotted and eventually canceled But the story as Rakowitz's work demonstrates did not end there Conjoining the cultural histories of Palestine and Israel with the ethical dilemmas faced by performers under the conditions of a boycott this volume the first in the Research Practice series brings to light the research that went into this multifaceted work and plots the future arc of its trajectory

Circumventions Michael Rakowitz, Carolyn Christov-Bakargiev, 2003 To circumvent is to get around the rules to find loopholes to initiate idiosyncratic solutions to employ subtle metaphor to highlight problematic situations Michael Rakowitz does just that combining architecture design agitational techniques and a poetic sensibility to create installations and performances that touch on issues of power visibility and memory His paraSITE shelters are custom built tents for homeless people that attach to the hot exhaust vents of buildings creating not only a heated abode but one much more visible than a cardboard box Rise conducts the smell of Chinese pastries from a Chinatown bakery to the decidedly un local art exhibition in an adjacent building And in Minaret Rakowitz uses an alarm clock bought in Jordan to broadcast the adhan the Muslim call to prayer to a city where minarets are otherwise quieted
