Mystic Bonfires Kevin Goodrich OP,2022-06-08 For centuries people have been drawn to the Christian mystics women and men who have known God in powerful and experiential ways Mystic Bonfires is for students scholars and practitioners of ministry theology and spiritual formation It explores theology and theory and shares insights for practice and prayer Readers will encounter classical concepts about the spiritual life and how to apply these concepts to their ministries in faithful and creative ways Mystic Bonfires includes questions for students in academic and formation settings as well as project ideas for congregations Mystic Bonfires explores the intersection of spiritual theology and practical theology Walter Hilton a 14th century English mystic and a contemporary of Julian of Norwich serves as a case study for the intersection of these fields called practical spiritual theology The Encyclopedia of Christian Literature George Thomas Kurian,James D. Smith III,2010-04-16 The written word is one of the defining elements of Christian experience As vigorous in the 1st century as it is in the 21st Christian literature has had a significant function in history and teachers and students need to be reminded of this powerful literary legacy Covering 2 000 years The Encyclopedia of Christian Literature is the first encyclopedia devoted to Christian writers and books In addition to an overview of the Christian literature this two volume set also includes 40 essays on the principal genres of Christian literature and more than 400 bio bibliographical essays describing the principal writers and their works These essays examine the evolution of Christian thought as reflected in the literature of every age The companion volume also features bibliographies an index a timeline of Christian Literature and a list of the greatest Christian authors The encyclopedia will appeal not only to scholars and Christian evangelicals but students and teachers in seminaries and theological schools as well as to the growing body of Christian readers and bibliophiles The National Union

Catalogs, 1963- ,1964 If you meet George Herbert on the road, kill him Justin Lewis-Anthony,2013-01-17 Priestly ministry in the Church of England needs a radical rethink George Herbert died in 1633 His legacy continues His poems are read and sung and his parish ministry remains the model for the Church of England s understanding of how and where and why its priests should minister But there is a problem The memory of Herbert celebrated by the Church is an inaccurate one and in its inaccuracy is unfair on Herbert himself and his successors in the ordained ministry This is a book of the long view It sets out to assess realistically the context of Herbert s life and to explore the difficulties of parish life today By examining the status and role of parish clergy since Herbert s time and today it draws on the work of historians social anthropologists psychologists and theologians and presents their ideas in a readable and passionate style It argues that the future strength of parochial ministry will be found in a recovery of historic renewed understandings of priestly ministry and concludes by outlining more sustainable patterns of practice for the future In a climate of uncertainty for the future of the church it will be an encouragement for priest and people and welcomed by both The Chicago Theological Seminary Register Chicago

Theological Seminary, 1951 Alumni directory issue 1859 1951 v 44 no 4 v 45 no 1 The Christian Century ,1921 The New Theologian Ved Mehta, 1966 In March of 1963 the Right Reverend John Robinson Suffragan Bishop of Woolwich wrote an article for the London Observer that appeared under the headline Our Image of God Must Go Soon afterward a book called Honest to God by the same Bishop appeared The book and the article together touched off one of t England s characteristically furious controversies It also touched off an inquiry by Ved Mehta one of The New Yorker s new generation of writers into the state of Christian theology in the contemporary world What resulted was The New Theologian For Mr Mehta Bishop Robinson turned out to be merely a point of departure since many of the Bishop s ideas were popular versions of ideas first developed by the pre eminent theologians Dietrich Bonhoeffer Rudolf Bultmann and Paul Tillich Mr Mehta began his investigation by returning directly to their work He went on to study the work of many other important theologians and clergymen particularly the so called Christian radicals and held conversations with a number of them including in addition to Bultmann and Tillich and Robinson Karl Barth Eberhard Bethge David Edwards William Hamilton Eric James D M MacKinnon Reinhold Niebuhr Arthur Michael Ramsey Ian Ramsey Nicolas Stacey Paul van Buren and A R Vidler What emerges in The New Theologian is a brilliant report on present day theology specifically on a movement that is sometimes referred to as religionless Christianity but that can also be seen as a movement of troubled but profoundly religious thinkers who are groping toward a reconciliation of Christian faith with the main secular intellectual currents of our age Mr Mehta presents not only the ideas of this extraordinary group of men but also in stunning portraits the men themselves Publisher National Union Catalog ,1980 Includes entries for maps and atlases Monographic Series Library of Congress, Books in Print ,1991 Catholic Apologetical Literature in the United States (1784-1858) Robert Gorman, 1939 Library of Congress Catalogs Library of Congress, 1976 New York Times Saturday Book Review Supplement ,1966 British Book News British Council, 1988 Includes no 53a British wartime books for young people Weekly Record ,1974 The New Review of Books and Religion ,1979 New Statesman Society ,1989-05
