Issued from the United States Patent and Trademark Office, Notes and Queries William Henry Egle, 1898 Van Gogh on Demand Winnie Wong, 2014-03-24 Unsettles contemporary art's unspoken hierarchies and topples modernist and postmodernist assumptions about originality, authenticity and authorship. caa Reviews In a metropolis in south China lies Dafen an urban village that houses thousands of workers who paint van Gogh's Da Vincis Warhols and other Western masterpieces for the world market producing an astonishing five million paintings a year. Winnie Wong infiltrated this world first investigating the work of conceptual artists then working as a dealer apprenticing as a painter surveying wholesalers and retailers in Europe East Asia and North America establishing relationships with local leaders and organizing a conceptual art exhibition for the Shanghai World Expo. The result is Van Gogh on Demand a fascinating book about a little known aspect of the global art world one that sheds surprising light on the workings of art artists and individual genius. Wong describes an art world in which migrant workers, propaganda makers, dealers and international artists make up a global supply chain of art. She examines how Berlin based conceptual artist Christian Jankowski who collaborated with Dafen's painters to reimagine the Dafen Art Museum unwittingly appropriated the work of a Hong Kong based photographer Michael Wolf. She recounts how Liu Ding a Beijing based conceptual artist asked Dafen assembly line painters to perform at the Guangzhou Triennial styling himself into a Dafen boss. Through such cases Wong shows how Dafen's painters force us to reexamine our preconceptions about the role of Chinese workers in redefining global art. A fantastically detailed exploration of a topic which touches the heart of many of the issues surrounding China's economic rise. South China Morning Post
