Living in Style Judith Jenner,2013-10-10 No other city has changed in the last twenty years as Belin has Entire neighborhoods have been reborn and long neglected buildings are once again gleaming brightly But the renovation does not stop at the facades Berlin has also become a creative laboratory for living leading trends in interior styles However there are a multiplicity of Berlin styles not just one From the lakeside villa to the center city townhouse from the loft on the Spree to the penthouse on Potsdamer Platz Living in Style Berin shows the wide range of exclusive living options in this world metropolis After browsing through this book you ll see the city from an entirely different perspective English German French edition

British Humanities Index ,2005    Michaël Borremans: Fire from the Sun Michael Borremans,2018-05-22 The first in a series of small format publications devoted to single bodies of work Fire from the Sun highlights Micha l Borremans s new work which features toddlers engaged in playful but mysterious acts with sinister overtones and insinuations of violence Known for his ability to recall classical painting both through technical mastery and subject matter Borremans s depiction of the uncanny the perhaps secret the bizarre often surprises sometimes disturbs the viewer In this series of work children are presented alone or in groups against a studio like backdrop that negates time and space while underlining the theatrical atmosphere and artifice that exists throughout Borremans s recent work Reminiscent of cherubs in Renaissance paintings the toddlers appear as allegories of the human condition their archetypal innocence contrasted with their suggested deviousness In his accompanying essay critic and curator Michael Bracewell takes an in depth look into specific paintings tackling both the highly charged subject matter and the masterly command of the medium He writes The art of Micha l Borremans seems always to have been predicated on a confluence of enigma ambiguity and painterly poetics accosting beauty with strangeness making historic Romanticism subjugate to mysterious controlling forces that are neither crudely malevolent nor necessarily benign Published on the occasion of Borremans's eponymous exhibition at David Zwirner in Hong Kong this publication is available in both English only and bilingual English/ traditional Chinese editions Of mice and men Maurizio Cattelan, Massimiliano Gioni, Ali Subotnick, 2006 Of Mice and Men ISBN 3 7757 1765 X 978 3 7757 1765 6 Hardcover 8 x 11 in 344 pgs 250 color U S 40 00 CDN 48 00

It offers enriching and unexpected encounters with the city, its history and its inhabitants, stimulating reflection on urban realities and, in a wider sense, the contemporary human condition. Thirty-five international artists were invited to conceive new artworks strongly rooted in the urban fabric of Ghent but linking the local context with issues of global significance. Participants include multi media artist John Bock, performance artist and choreographer Alexandra Bachzetsis, painter Erik van Lieshout and visual artist Mircea Cantor, among many others. 0Exhibition Gent 12 5 16 9 2012 Marina Abramović Mary Richards, 2018-10-25 Marina Abramović is the creator of pioneering performance art which transcends the form's provocative origins. Her visceral and extreme performances have tested the limits of both body and mind, communicating with audiences worldwide on a personal and political level. Updated and revised throughout the book, combines a biography setting out the contexts of Abramović's work, an examination of the artist through her writings, interviews and influences, a detailed analysis of her work including studies of the Rhythm series, Nightsea Crossing and 512 Hours, practical explorations of the performances and their origins. As a first step towards critical understanding and as an initial exploration before going on to further primary research, Routledge Performance Practitioners offer unbeatable value for today's student. The Art of Performance Angiola R. Churchill, 1979 Performance Carol Simpson Stern, Bruce Henderson, 1993 Integrative Performance Experience Bryon, 2014-04-24 Integrative Performance serves a crucial need of 21st century performers by providing a transdisciplinary approach to training. Its radical new take on performance practice is designed for a climate that increasingly requires fully rounded artists. The book critiques and interrogates key current practices and offers a proven alternative to the idea that rigorous and effective training must separate the disciplines into discrete categories of acting, singing and dance. Experience Bryon's Integrative Performance Practice is a way of working that will profoundly shift how performers engage with their training, conditioning and performance disciplines. It synthesizes the various elements of performance work in order to empower the performer as they practice across disciplines within any genre, style or aesthetic. Theory and practice are balanced throughout using Regular box outs introducing the work's theoretical underpinnings through quotes case studies and critical interjections A full program of exercises ranging from training of specific muscle groups through working with text to more subtle structures for integrative awareness and presence This book is the result of over twenty years of practice and research working with interdisciplinary artists across the world to produce a training that fully prepares performers for the demands of contemporary performance and all its somatic emotive and vocal possibilities
