institutional settings and even in the very founders and foundations of the field of psychoanalysis itself They explore the dilemma of how to process loss when it is unspeakable and unknowable often manifesting in silence or gaps in knowledge and living in strange relations to time and space This book will be of interest to psychotherapists and psychoanalysts as well as social workers family therapists psychologists and psychiatrists It will appeal to those specializing in bereavement and trauma and on a broader level to sociologists and historians interested in understanding means of coping with loss and grief on both an individual and larger scale basis
