Other Voices Other Views An Internati:

Other Voices, Other Views Robin W. Winks, 1978-03-29 The essays collected here represent prevailing scholarly attitudes and they focus on current areas of academic concern abroad offering examples of the status of the study of America in other countries They cover a wide range of topics related to the mutual influences exerted between America and other countries from literature to economics social movements to mass culture Service Clubs in American Society Jeffrey A. Charles, 1993 Placing the clubs in the context of twentieth century middle class culture Charles maintains that they represented the response of locally oriented traditional middle class men to societal changes The groups emerged at a time when service was becoming both a middle class and a business ideal As voluntary associations they represented a shift in organizing rationale from fraternalism to service The clubs and their ideology of service were welcome as a unifying force at a time when small cities and towns were beset by economic and population pressures International Journal of Language Studies (IJLS) 8 volume 14(1) Mohammad Ali Salmani Nodoushan, Bruno Kreisky's Foreign Policy Günter Bischof, Michael Burri, 2025-08-01 Despite his significance the role of Austrian politician Bruno Kreisky remains under represented in Anglo American Cold War scholarship Serving as foreign minister from 1959 to 1966 and chancellor from 1970 to 1983 his political career oversaw seismic developments in both Austria's postwar recovery and broader international relations with the Middle East the Communist Bloc and the United States In this enlightening and geographically wide ranging reappraisal of his life and legacy Bruno Kreisky's Foreign Policy A Reassessment seeks to reinstate the global repercussions of Kreisky's work Ranging from his involvement in the Marshall Plan to his role in the Arab Israeli conflict this volume highlights how Kreisky profoundly reshaped the geopolitical landscape of the modern era International Society David R. Mapel, Terry Nardin, 2021-03-09 In a time of eroding sovereignty and resurgent nationalism this collection provides a searching investigation of the moral foundations of the international order Drawing on diverse philosophical and theological perspectives the contributors debate the character of international society the authority of international law and institutions and the demands of international justice In a series of philosophical essays each followed by a critical commentary the book considers the contributions of legal positivism natural law Kantian ethics contractarian theory and moral cosmopolitanism to the discussion of law and justice in international society It also includes commentaries by experts in Jewish Christian and Islamic moral theology and a concluding chapter that compares and contrasts the views presented without seeking to adjudicate their differences Because of its comprehensive approach and the diversity of its viewpoints the volume serves as an introduction to the topic and as a resource for scholars journalists policy makers and anyone else who wants to understand better the range of moral perspectives that underlies discussion of the current international order In addition to the editors the contributors are Brian Barry Chris Brown John Charvet Richard Friedman Robert P George Sohail Hashmi Pierre Laberge David Miller David Novak Max L Stackhouse Fernando R Tesón and Frederick G Whelan

Discourse and Practice in International Commercial Arbitration Vijay Kumar Bhatia, Christopher Candlin, Maurizio Gotti, 2012 This book addresses in a range of ways and from various locations and sites those aspects of arbitration practice that are considered crucial for its integrity as an institution and its independence as a professional practice It highlights the challenges facing the institution of arbitration and identifies the opportunities available for its development as an institution This volume serves as a useful resource for all scholars and practitioners interested in the institution of arbitration and its professional practices

International Handbook of Research on Environmental Education Robert B. Stevenson, Robert Stevenson, 2013 The environment and contested notions of sustainability are increasingly topics of public interest political debate and legislation across the world Environmental education journals now publish research from a wide variety of methodological traditions that show linkages between the environment health development and education The growth in scholarship makes this an opportune time to review and synthesize the knowledge base of the environmental education EE field The purpose of this 51 chapter handbook is not only to illuminate the most important concepts findings and theories that have been developed by EE research but also to critically examine the historical progression of the field its current debates and controversies what is still missing from the EE research agenda and where that agenda might be headed Published for the American Educational Research Association AERA
