Our House Divided:

Our House Divided Tomi K. Knaefler, 1995-05-01 How does a man serving in the Imperial Japanese Army feel when he suddenly sees his brother in the uniform of the enemy United States How does a Japanese mother surrounded by barbed wire in an American internment camp for enemy aliens feel when her only son writes I am now an American soldier I must fight and if necessary die for my country How does a Hawaii born youth feel as he lies near death in Hiroshima a victim of history's first nuclear attack launched by the United States Or a twelve year old girl on a sugar plantation whose ailing father returned to the place of his birth just a month earlier on the morning she hears that yellow Japs have attacked These are among the moments of excruciating confrontation experienced by Japanese American families divided geographically and politically between Japan and Hawaii when the Pacific War exploded at Pearl Harbor Our House Divided focuses on seven personal stories of such families as they struggled with the emotions and events brought on by the war stories of the dilemma of first generation Japanese Americans who were strongly attached both to the country of their birth and to the land where they had spent most of their lives and raised children in communities they had helped to build and stories of the dilemma of second generation Japanese Americans whose loyalty to the United States was questioned even though they were American citizens That these citizens turned that distrust into national respect through their celebrated achievements is also part of the poignant story Our House Divided an inward journey for the author will open the eyes and hearts of many readers who have roots in more than one country and culture Foreword by A A Bud Smyser      Our House Divided John Bach McMaster, 1961

A House Divided Cecilia E. Holloman, 2002-03 In a world faced with terrorism and division God's people are called to be Restorers of Broken Walls and Repairers of Streets and Dwellings Believers everywhere are challenged to set the example of love and unity and to bring healing to broken communities families and individuals In this nation that has been founded on the principles of Unity in Diversity God's people must walk together in love and power if there is to be healing in the land Collaboration is the key to such unity and restoration A House Divided calls for faith based collaboration in this great nation celebrating and honoring our creed From Many One E Pluribus Unum This book boldly proclaims that there can be No Division in the White House in God's House or in our House      Mind Traps and Breaking Free Through God's Love

Judith Shannon, 2017-09-07 Mind Traps and Breaking Free Through God's Love explains how our own thinking brings us into offense rejection and depression It is not caused by circumstances or people as some would suggest Mind traps operate opposite of the characteristics of love that God has placed in our hearts This book teaches how to recognize and circumvent wrong thinking and stop the progression into depression It is possible to overcome this destructive pattern that makes our lives a painful roller coaster existence God promises in His Word that we can be more than conquerors Romans 8:37 We can live free from a tormenting thought life and enjoy God's rest in our souls Learn how to be victorious in Christ today and overcome debilitating mind traps      A House Divided Sally Mirliss Blake, 1968      A Man's Workbook Stephanie S.

Covington, Dan Griffin, Rick Dauer, 2011-01-18 A Man's Workbook offers a companion product that is tied seamlessly to the Helping Men Recover Facilitator's Guide. This participant workbook has four modules: self-relationships, sexuality, and spirituality, and allows men to process and record the therapeutic experience. It contains exercises for use in group sessions, summaries of information presented from the facilitator's guide, and reflection questions and activities for use after group sessions. There is also a criminal justice version of the workbook which is designed specifically for men in criminal justice settings.

Understanding Wisdom Warren, Jr. Brown, 2012-04-10 The study of wisdom is challenging and thought provoking. This volume sheds light on the age-old question: What is wisdom and where does it come from? Evidence of wisdom can be seen in both perception and performance in sacred scriptures and in brain images. An eminent group of scholars from fields as diverse as theology, philosophy, medicine, biology, psychology, and linguistics were brought together to bring focus to this understudied area of scientific research. Editor Warren Brown presents his research on brain functioning drawn from observing individuals with damage to specific neural areas to suggest the importance of integration between hemispheres of the brain to comprehend complex situations in a way that may be termed wise. Diana Van Lancker also looks at hemispheres of the brain and explores studies that show that left brain functioning is related to prayers, chants, and sayings often used in religious practice. Wolfgang Mieder, recognized as the foremost scholar in the study of proverbs, explores the secular use of the biblical proverb of "A house divided against itself cannot stand" (Matt. 12:25). R. E. Clements also looks to the book of Proverbs and focuses on its ultimate goal: virtue and wholeness.

Beneath Heavy Pines in World War II Louisiana Hayley Johnson, Sarah Simms, 2023-06-21 December 7, 1941 changed the lives of thousands of Japanese Americans who became enemy in the eyes of the United States government within hours. With Pearl Harbor still smoldering, these men would be arrested and put into the enemy alien internment system. As the study of internment has steadily grown, the information about the confinement sites and ability to piece together the experiences of the men within has remained a challenging task. Camp Livingston, famous as a site for the Louisiana Maneuvers, holds a darker and less well-known history. From 1942-1943, over 1,000 men of Japanese ancestry were held in this internment camp in the pine forests of central Louisiana. The authors approach this camp's history via the experiences and linkages to and through two families: the Miyamotos and Koharas, who are the beating heart at the center of this saga. Through them, the authors have laid out a historical counter-narrative that is part biography and part critical exploration of a forgotten chapter of American history. This manuscript is the first of its kind to focus primarily on exploring Camp Livingston, arguably one of the lesser-known enemy alien internment camps, in depth, including its layout, operations, and the daily life and experiences of the internees within.
