Our Common Interest:

Our Common Interest Commission for Africa, 2005-06-02 The Commission for Africa finds the conditions of the lives of the majority of Africans to be intolerable and an affront to the dignity of all mankind We insist upon an alteration of these conditions through a change of policy in favour of the weak The report of the Commission for Africa is the most important document of our time Created by major decision makers from across the globe it is a call to action for the nations meeting at the 2005 G8 summit to end extreme poverty in the world's most desperate continent This book sets out clearly the arguments and recommendations of the Commission's plan for a strong prosperous Africa The Africa Commission is a masterful display of diagnosis and politics Jeffrey Sachs Guardian If we act on these recommendations there is a good chance of a better life for hundreds of millions Financial Times This report will be an important contribution to the continuing search for effective solutions to the continent's problems Kofi Annan Lectures on the History of Political Philosophy John Rawls, 2008-09-15 Remarks on political philosophy Lectures on Hobbes Lectures on Locke Lectures on Hume Lectures on Rousseau Lectures on Mill Lectures on Marx Routledge Philosophy GuideBook to Rousseau and the Social Contract Christopher Bertram, 2004-08-02 Rousseau's Social Contract is a benchmark in political philosophy and has influenced moral and political thought since its publication Rousseau and the Social Contract introduces and assesses Rousseau's life and the background of the Social Contract The ideas and arguments of the Social Contract Rousseau's continuing importance to politics and philosophy Rousseau and the Social Contract will be essential reading for all students of philosophy and politics and anyone coming to Rousseau for the first time Stepping Out of the Brain Drain Michele R. Pistone, John J. Hoeffner, 2007-05-30 Stepping Out of the Brain Drain is an important contribution to the intensifying debate about highly skilled migration from developing to developed countries Addressing the issue from the perspective of Catholic social thought the authors demonstrate that both the economic and ethical rationales for the teaching's opposition to brain drain have been undermined in recent years and show how the adoption of a less critical policy could provide enhanced opportunities for poor countries to accelerate their economic development Annual Report of the Board of Directors to the Stockholders... Associated Press, 1900 Constitutional Pluralism in the European Union and Beyond Matej Avbelj, Jan Komárek, 2012-02-29 Constitutional pluralism has become immensely popular among scholars who study European integration and issues of global governance Some of them believe that constitutionalism traditionally thought to be bound to a nation state can emerge beyond state borders most importantly in the process of European integration but also beyond that for example in international regulatory regimes such as the WTO or international systems of fundamental rights protection such as the European Convention At the same time the idea of constitutional pluralism has not gone unchallenged Some have questioned its compatibility with the very nature of law and the values which law brings to constitutionalism The critiques have come from both sides from those who believe in the traditional European constitutionalism based on a hierarchically superior authority of the European Union as well as from scholars focusing on constitutions of particular states The book collects contributions taking opposing perspectives on constitutional pluralism some defending and promoting the concept of constitutional pluralism some criticising and opposing it While some authors can be called the founding fathers of constitutional pluralism others are young academics who have recently entered the field Together they offer fresh perspectives on both theoretical and practical aspects of constitutional pluralism enriching our existing understanding of the concept in current scholarship
